

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD SMALL JR.
... Lynne Michelle Bailey

Couple Wed In Oceanfront Ceremony

Lynne Michelle Bailey and Richard Small Jr. were married Aug. 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the "Salty Winds" cottage at Holden Beach.

Rev. Traette Rogers, pastor of Mount Pisgah Baptist Church, officiated the double-ring outdoor ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Bailey of Supply. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Small Sr. of Paigeton, W.Va.

The oceanfront ceremony took place on the lawn, which was decorated with baskets of gladiolas, carnations, chrysanthemums, daisies, babies' breath and asters.

Guests sat in three church pews arranged on the lawn, with a white satin bow marking the family pew. The walkway was lit with white luminaries. A bridal wind-sock flew from the deck and railings were decorated with white streamers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a two-piece champagne lace dress. She carried a bou-quet of longstemmed daisies, pink lilies, asters, blue forget-me-nots and babies' breath.

The wedding was directed by Ms. Gay Atkins.

The bride is a graduate of Peterstown High School, Peterstown, W.Va., and Bluefield State College, Bluefield, W.Va., where she earned an associate degree in nursing. She is employed at Bluefield Community Hospital in Bluefield, as a registered nurse in the surgery department.

Small is a graduate of Gary High School, Gary, W.Va., and is employed with Smith-Kline Bio-Science Laboratories of Atlanta, Ga.

Following a honeymoon at Holden Beach, the newlyweds are making their home in Bluefield.

Applications Available Now For Oyster Festival Pageant

Applications are now being accepted for entry in the 1987 N.C. Oyster Festival Queen's Scholarship Pageant and Princess Pageant.

The dual pageant will be held as part of the sixth N.C. Oyster Festival, Oct. 11-12.

Sponsored by the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, the queen's pageant is open to women ages 17 through 24 who reside in Brunswick, Bladen, Columbus, New Hanover and Pender counties. Contestants must be single and never married.

Girls in the Princess pageant must be 7 to 9 years of age.

According to Chamber Executive

Anne Marie Schettini, no more than 12 competitors will be accepted in each division. Contestants will be judged on the basis of private interviews, talent presentation and swimwear and evening gown appearance. A "most photogenic" award will be presented and scholarships in excess of $1,000 will be shared by the queen and runners-up.

The reigning Oyster Festival Queen is Tamala Grissett of Shallotte, daughter of Malcolm and Brenda Grissett.

Applications are available from the chamber office, P.O. Box 1380, Shallotte, NC 28459 or by calling Pageant Coordinator Karen Meacham, 579-2101.

Wedding Vows Spoken

Diana White of Shallotte and Paul Clewis of Crusoe were married Aug. 16 in a small family ceremony at her Quail Drive, Shallotte, residence, where the newlyweds will make their home. Rev. Iyren Hughes officiated the wedding.
