

Third Graders Want Dolls, Skateboards—And Dollars

Third graders in Christine Brammett's class at Waccamaw Elementary School in Ash have definite ideas about what should be under the Christmas tree for them on Dec. 25. Parents and grandparents take note.

The youngsters were sure to tell Santa their school location, if not their street addresses.

Along with their usual requests for dolls, B.B. guns, skateboards, four-wheelers and computers—a lot of the third-graders asked for cash—and lots of it.

In careful lettering, complete with serials, for instance, Rebecca DeFossa included on her wish list, a clean room, million (sic) dollars, thousand wishes and good luck.

Dear Santa,
My name is Janet.
I am eight years old. I am in the third grade at Waccamaw School. I want a baby talk, and anything you want to bring me.

Janet Smith

Dear Santa Claus,

I want to get some clothes for Christmas. I hope you are having nice weather. Because we are not, so we have to have some nice weather. We are having rainstorms and bad winds. Sunday is turning into rain. We've been planning to go to the park the last Sundays, but it's been raining. Mom said we are going Saturday. But Saturday is the Christmas parade, and I am in it. Mom said we can go after the parade. Hope you like my note. I am eight, and using to turn nine.

St. Nick

BY KIM CLEMMONS
A Sixth Grader in Mrs. P. Owens Class
At Shallotte Middle School

As Christmas comes around
It lights up the town
Children and all
Come down to the mall
To see old St. Nick

With his big red hat
And his belly that's fat
He wears a suit that's red
And boots that are black
And a belt that's slack

Girls and boys
Who all want toys
Will find just what they want
In St. Nick's joys

So you better be good
Girls and boys
If you want any toys

I want a rock lord, Dream house, skate board, 100 Dollars, Maze game.

Shalatta M. King
