She weighed six pounds, 14 ounces. Maternal grandparents are Leona Fearnside of Ash and the late Bennett Fearnside. Paternal grandparents are Ray and Natalie Nichols of Supply.

Great-grandparents are Pink and Lennie White of Ash.

Juniors Hold Student Arts Festival Monday

Students from three area schools will compete for prizes and a chance to advance to district competition in the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club Arts Festival on Feb. 2.

Entries will be displayed for public viewing Monday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the multipurpose room at West Brunswick High School.

Davina Candela, art department chairman, said students were eligible to enter in a variety of categories, judged in age divisions. They include visual media such as painting and sculpture, needlework, crafts, writing (fiction, non-fiction and poetry), piano scholarship, dress revenue and public speaking.

While most areas will be judged in advance, public speaking entries, if there are any, will be judged during the festival.

The annual club arts festival includes competitions for students and club members. Club members' entries will be judged Feb. 9.

Winners from both competitions advance to the district-level. This year's district festival will be held Feb. 21 at Trinity United Methodist Church in Southport, with the Southport Junior Woman's Club as host.

District winners advance to the state arts festival sponsored by the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Supply Club Hears About Tax Laws

The Supply Extension Homemakers Club heard a program on the new tax laws when it met Jan. 20 at the Brunswick Electric Membership Corp.

Aileen Miles presented the information from brochures supplied by the Brunswick County Extension Service.

President Rosemary Whaley announced dates for upcoming extension homemakers meetings and workshops. They included a pine straw broom workshop, 9 a.m., Jan. 29; a craft workshop, 10:30 a.m., Feb. 3, at the home of Evelyn Gunnersen; a county cultural arts contest, 10 a.m., Feb. 12, at the government center; and a covered dish luncheon meeting, 10:30 a.m., Feb. 17, at the Calabash Volunteer Rescue Squad building.

Millie Evans, health chairman, led club members in physical exercises.

Tickets and posters were distributed for the county extension homemakers quilt show to be held April 4 at Shallotte Middle School.

For more information, contact the extension office at the government center in Bolivia.

Women's Club Luncheon Held

Ocean Creek Resort was the setting for a Jan. 14 luncheon meeting of the North Myrtle Beach Christian Women's Club. About 98 women from the area attended.

Guest speaker was Judy Earnheart of Greensboro, who shared her relationship to Jesus Christ.

Also featured were soloist Laura Farmer of North Myrtle Beach, S.C., and Karon Killian of Conway, S.C., who presented a display of paintings and discussed the origin of folk art painting.

The February luncheon will be held at 12:15 p.m. Feb. 18, at Ocean Creek Resort. The cost is $7, and the program will include a fashion show by Victoria's Ragpatch, a talk by Claudia Taylor and music by Donna Small.

For reservations call Mildred Jackson in Shallotte, 754-4210.
