

To Wed Feb. 14

Cynthia A. Hawkins of Hartsville, S.C., and Allen K. Brittain of Bolivia will be married Saturday, Feb. 14, at 3 p.m. at Antioch Baptist Church, Midway Road, Bolivia. She is the daughter of Mrs. Patsy Horton of Hartsville, S.C., and Judson Hawkins Jr. of Bolivia. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert K. Brittain of Bolivia. Friends and relatives are invited to the wedding and the reception immediately afterwards.

To Marry In June

Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Hardee of Shallotte have announced the engagement of her sister, Susan Thames Usher of Shallotte, to Donald Eugene Eggert of Village Point Road, Shallotte, formerly of Long Beach. He is the son of Eugene and Evelyn Eggert of Roxboro. A June 27 riverfront wedding is planned at the N.C. Baptist Assembly, Oak Island.

ABWA Hears Talk On Pornography

Brunswick Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) members saw an educational side program on pornography at their January meeting.

Sandra Robertson defined pornography, explained how women and children are made its victims, and suggested ways to stop it.

Afterwards, Vice-President Betty Jo Edge conducted a business session. Ways and Means Chairman Mary Owens announced the success of a November turkey fundraising project and discussed future projects.

Clubwomen also began planning a spring membership drive.

The Feb. 12 meeting will feature a program on drug abuse. It will be held at Joe's Barbecue in Shallotte at 6:30 p.m. Interested women may attend.

Couples Review Tax Changes

Extension Home Economist Mary Russ discussed the Tax Act of 1986 and its effect on taxpayers at the Jan. 25 meeting of the Guys and Dolls Extension Homemakers Club.

She also distributed copies of highlights of the law to the 13 members present.

Two new members were announced, Elizabeth and Don Trenton of Boiling Spring Lakes.

Presiding was Vice-President Thelma Dunn. Later in the meeting, she was elected president succeeding Edith Hoy, who has resigned her club duties due to illness. Alice Perkis was elected vice-president.

Members also discussed a proposal for a 911 emergency response system for the county, noting that interested persons should express their opinions on the idea to the county commissioners. The Pilot Club of the South Brunswick Islands, which is backing the project, plans a follow-up meeting in May.

Club members accumulated 184 hours of volunteer service since their Dec. 18 meeting, it was reported.

Jean and Ed Robinson are to represent the club at a Senior Adult Council meeting at the Brunswick County Government Center Cafeteria on Feb. 17.

Investments Are Topic For AARP

Investing for income in the '80s is the subject of a talk by Putnam Fund representative Glen Jones at the Feb. 5 meeting of Calabash Chapter 3640 of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP).

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. in the Calabash Volunteer Fire Department.

For one hour before the meeting, blood pressure readings will be taken by Jackie Fennel, R.N.

Old eyeglasses to donate to Lions Club International may be brought to the meeting.

Guests are welcome, said Edith Correll, spokesman.

Homemakers Will Visit Center

Bolivia Extension Homemakers are planning a Feb. 14 Valentine's Day party for residents of Ocean Trail Convalescent Center in Southport.

Plans were made at their Jan. 27 meeting at the home of the Herbert Bryants, attended by 17 members.

They also planned a covered dish dinner for the February meeting.

At the January meeting, Debbie Smith presented an educational program on health foods and nutrition. She explained how nutrients found in foods help promote growth for the body.

Committee reports were given by Gloria Bryant, certified volunteer units; and by Lucrester Mosley, cultural arts.

Club members also were provided information on recent changes in the tax laws.

Devotions were given by Charles Brown and birthday greetings were extended to Elizabeth Williams.

Pilot Club Recognizes Teachers

The Pilot Club of South Brunswick Islands observed Teacher Appreciation Month in January.

Members treated teachers and staff at Shallotte Middle, Union Primary and West Brunswick High schools to homemade cakes, cookies and drinks each Wednesday for three weeks, reports spokesman Jill Richards.

"We are proud of our teachers and take notice of their dedication to our youth," said Greta Bolick, project division coordinator.

Also, the club has added four new members, Pam Pahl, Sue Chapman, Cathy Lawing and Sylvia Shannon.

President Sherry Roseman has been appointed Extension Area Leader for the North Carolina District, helping to develop new clubs. In this area, Whiteville has been targeted as the possible site of a new Pilot Club, said Richards.
