

MRS. BARRY DEAN SMITH
... Merry Merlene Hawes

Hawes, Smith Wed At Shell Point

Merlene Hawes and Dean Smith were married Jan. 10 at 3 p.m. at Shell Point Baptist Church in a double-ring ceremony officiated by Rev. Donald M. Hardwick.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Merrell Hawes of Shallotte. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Smith, also of Shallotte.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown of white taffeta with an off-the-shoulder neckline and leg-o'-mutton sleeves. It featured a bodice of beaded silk venise lace, with a basque waist that flowed into a gathered skirt. The semi-cathedral train was accented with a self-bow and streamers.

Her two-tier veil was attached to a halo of silk flowers and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, daisies and babies' breath.

Danni Moore of Shallotte was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Phebe McLean, Lori Smith and Teddi Perkins, friends of the bride.

They wore floor-length gowns of royal blue taffeta with natural waistline and gathered skirt. It was fashioned with an embroidered bodice, off-the-shoulder neckline, cartridge sleeves and self-tie sash.

The groom's father was his best man. Ushers were Dexter Smith and Larry Branch, friends of the groom; Trevor Gore, cousin of the bride; and Robert McLean, brother-in-law of the groom.

A unity candle, candleabra and white baskets of white chrysanthemums and daisies decorated the sanctuary, with arrangements of royal blue candles and magnolia leaves in the windows.

Music was provided by Jacquie Helms, pianist; and Wanda Hardwick and Cindy Coffman, vocalists. The wedding was directed by Laye Gore. Wendi Moore was in charge of the guest register, while Suzanne Moore distributed programs.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church fellowship hall.

The hall was also the setting of a rehearsal party given by the groom's parents on Jan. 9.

Blake Urges DAR To Conserve

Mrs. J.L. Blake, state chairman of conservation for the North Carolina Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, presented a program on water conservation at the March meeting of the William Gause DAR chapter.

"Imagine what it would be like to turn on the tap and find nothing there," she said. "People in some parts of the country know this can happen. They are learning how to conserve water. They know that water is a limited resource."

Water shortages are a local or regional problem today, according to Mrs. Blake, but will someday be a national problem.

She urged members to practice conservation now and gave several ideas that can be used around the home and farm to conserve water.

The DAR will participate in celebration of the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution. Chapter members received greetings and a message from Mrs. Ann D. Fleck, president general of the NSDAR, reminding members to use their vigor, ingenuity, devotion and loyalty to make 1987 a great year.

Mrs. Theodocia Clemmons gave the National Defense message. Topics included community involvement, Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD), civil defense, and an article, "Just Say No To Drugs," by President Ronald Reagan.

Mrs. R.E. Sellers, regent, presided at the Feb. 19 meeting at Woodburn Presbyterian Church in Leland. Six members attended.

The next meeting will be March 19 in the board room of Brunswick Technical College in Supply. Slides of old battlefields will be shown for the program.
