Two Named Hospital Trustees

DiNapoli Holden

Alan Holden and Dr. Charles E. DiNapoli of Holden Beach have been appointed to the Brunswick Hospital Board of Trustees, according to Chairman Sam H. Edwards of Shallotte.

Holden, a county native and graduate of Methodist College, is owner of Alan Holden Realty, president of the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the Holden Beach Planning and Zoning Board and a member of the Brunswick County Planning Board and a member of the board of North Carolina National Bank.

Dr. Charles E. DiNapoli, who began his general surgery practice at the hospital in July 1984, now has an office in Shallotte. He holds a B.S. in biology from the University of Cincinnati and a medical degree from the University of Bologna, Italy. He completed surgical internships in Valhalla, N.Y., and New Haven, Conn., where he was also chief surgical resident before moving to Brunswick County.

Babson Graduates

Airman Bobby W. Babson Jr. has graduated from the U.S. Air Force aircraft maintenance course, Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby W. Babson Sr. of Route 4, Supply, he is a 1986 graduate of West Brunswick High School in Shallotte.

Coombes Promoted

William D. Coombes, son of retired Chief Warrant Officer William D. and Vergie I. Coombes of Southport, has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of chief warrant officer three.

He is an electronic missile maintenance officer with the 65th Air Defense Artillery, Fort Bliss, Texas.

Harper Honored

A Southport insurancewoman,

Margaret Harper, will be one of six persons inducted into the North Carolina Journalism Hall of Fame on April 12 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The hall is sponsored by the university's Journalism School.

Wife of James M. Harper Jr., publisher of the Pilot, she edited the paper while her husband served in the U.S. Navy. She is better known across the state as a long-time secretary-treasurer of the N.C. Press Association. She has been president of the North Carolina Press Women and the N.C. Federation of Women's Clubs and has served as a UNC-Chapel Hill trustee.

Pierce Elected

Amanda Pierce of Shallotte is the new president of the Southeastern Community College Cosmetology Club. The group sponsors hair shows, participates in professional growth activities and sponsors charity fundraising events, such as a recent Cystic Fibrosis Dance-A-Thon and the purchase of dryers and other beauty equipment for use in rest homes.

Walker Certified

Realtor Betty M. Walker of Ocean Isle Beach has been designated a certified real estate instructor by the N.C. Real Estate Commission, qualifying her to teach fundamentals of real estate, real estate brokerage operations and real estate finance pre-licensing courses by schools licensed or approved by the commission.

A broker with Island Realty, she also teaches real state finance part-time for Brunswick Technical College.

Seven Recognized

Seven Brunswick County students have been recognized for academic achievement during the winter quarter at Southeastern Community College in Whiteville.

Students earned a grade point average of 3.25 or better on at least 12 credit hours of coursework, with no grade lower than a C.

Earning a 4.0 on 15 hours of credit was Freda King Babson of Ash. Recognized also were Edith Cheryl Bennett, Shallotte, 3.7; Mary Zillah Dawson, Supply, 3.3; Thomas Grant Gore Jr., Ash, 3.3; Sheila Morgan

Jenrette, Shallotte, 3.6; Amanda Lee Pierce, Shallotte, 3.7; and Tommy Martin Cribb, Ash, 3.4

Wins Trip

Andreka Miller of Leland, an employee of McDonald's fast-food restaurant in Leland, has won a trip for two to Hong Kong as the grand prize winner of the 1986 nationwide McDonald's Shanghai Sweepstakes.

The sweepstakes was an incentive to encourage sales of Shanghai Chicken McNuggets, with employees from restaurants selling the most in each of the chain's 30 regions between Aug. 8 and Sept. 14 eligible. Leland was the top restaurant in the Raleigh region.

Miller is a North Brunswick High School student. Her winnings include a 10-day, nine-night trip for two, plus round trip coach airfare, hotel accommodations and $1,500 cash.

Airman Honored

U.S. Air Force Airman 1st Class Kenneth D. Henry Jr. has been named outstanding airman of the month at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, where he is an aircraft environmental systems mechanic with the 4th Component Repair Squadron. The award is based on exemplary duty performance, job knowledge, leadership qualities, significant self-improvement and other qualities.

He is the son of Kenneth D. and Tonda M. Henry of Route 1, Winabow, and is married to the former Anita Weeks of Wilmington.

Completes Basic

U.S. Army Private Patrick S. Finnerty has completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J.

A 1983 graduate of Metuchen High School, N.J., he is the son of Joseph R. and Mary J. Finnerty of Carolina Shores.

Completes Basic
