Tree Honors Library Employee

Preschool story hour participants at the West Brunswick Branch Library in Shallotte gathered round youth services library worker Felecia Hardy (fourth adult from left) Tuesday morning as the Long Bay Garden Club plants a crape myrtle in her honor. In the foreground, Larry Harrelson of Harrelson Farm Center handles the actual planting. In addition to being the club's Arbor Day observance, said spokesman Frances Gravatt, the ceremony marks the start of a community drive to clean up litter and beautify the county with crape myrtles. The club is also donating 25 of the trees for planting in county parks as its recognition of the bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution.

Dignitaries Expected At VFW Groundbreaking

A bevy of dignitaries are expected to participate in the groundbreaking ceremony for the Calabash Veterans of Foreign Wars new post home.

The ceremony is planned Sunday, April 5, at 2 p.m. in Calabash next to the Lewellyn's real estate building. The public is invited.

Among those expected to attend are U.S. Congressman Charles G. Rose, Calabash VFW Commander Roy Wrenn, Rep. E. David Redwine, State VFW Commander Ronald Green, Brunswick County District 1

Commissioner Chris Chappell, Calabash Mayor Doug Simmons, VFW District Commander Fred Boege, VFW District Ladies Auxiliary President La Donne Bland, Calabash VFW Ladies Auxiliary President Florence Cook, Brunswick County Veterans Service Officer Jess Parker, and planner/designer of the building, Darius Lewellyn.

Afterwards the VFW plans a dinner at Ella's Restaurant in Calabash, said spokesman George J. Hriez.

THE UCB BONUS RATE IRA

7.00% Annual Yield 18 Month Term 6.67% Annual Rate

Before You Write Off IRAs, Write $2,000 Off Your 1986 Taxable Income. There's good news and there's better news.

Here's the good news—eligible contributions you make to your IRA between now and April 15, 1987 are entirely tax deductible for 1986—regardless of whether or not you have a company retirement plan. Also, any contributions you've already made to your IRA over the years and the income from them are still tax-deferred until withdrawal.*

And even better news. United Carolina Bank is now offering a bonus rate that's guaranteed for 18 months.

So don't delay. Stop by your nearest UCB office and get yours today! We're here to help you get the most for your money.

Substantial penalty for early withdrawal. *The tax laws relating to IRAs are complex. Consult your own tax advisor to determine how they affect you.
