Schettini Elected To Tourism Post

Anne Marie Schettini, executive director of the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce was recently elected vice president of North Carolina Coast Host.

She will represent the southern region of the coast on the board of directors of the group, an alliance of coastal attractions, chambers of commerce and properties that promotes and develops coastal travel and tourism.

Schettini also attended the first Conference on Coastal Tourism, sponsored by the University of North Carolina Small Business and Technology Development Center.

Airman Graduates

Airman Douglas B. Robertson has graduated from the U.S. Air Force course for space control and warning systems operations at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.

The 1985 West Brunswick High School graduate is the son of Samuel J. Robertson of Fayetteville and Rebecca R. Robertson of Holden Beach.

Completes Course

Pvt. Johnny D. Carroll, son of Louise J. Carroll of Bolivia, has completed a basic field artillery cannoneer course under the one station unit training program at Fort Sill, Okla.

The program combines basic training with advanced individual training.

Riders Sought For Benefit

Riders are needed for a May 3 bike-a-thon to benefit the Leukemia Society of America.

The ride, which will follow a three-mile course through Brierwood Estates, is sponsored by the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club.

Anyone may participate, but they must have a sponsor form. These may be obtained at Bryan's, The Kid's Connection, Rockwell's Deli, The Fitness Connection and The Brunswick Beacon in Shallotte, or by calling Kim Galloway at 842-6558 or Delana Holden at 754-9237.

Trophies and prizes will be awarded to the bicyclists who ride the most miles and turn in the most money.

Completed Seminar

Gwen C. Causey of Supply, a fifth-grade teacher at Shallotte Middle School, participated in an April 7-12 seminar on "Reading, Writing and Thinking" at the North Carolina Center for the Advancement of Teaching, at Western Carolina University.

Instructors included Jan Davidson, curator of the Appalachian Heritage Center at WCU and the first Visiting Artist hosted by Brunswick Technical College.

In Chorus

Sonya Williams, a freshman at Gardner-Webb College at Boiling Springs, is a member of the college's 36-member chorus.

The chorus will give its spring concert Thursday, April 30, at 8 p.m. in the college's Dover Theatre.

Williams is the daughter of Evelyn Furlong of Route 5, Shallotte, and is a graduate of West Brunswick High School.

Clifton Arrives

Air Force Staff Sgt. Richard D. Clifton has arrived for duty with the 8th Tactical Fighter Wing, South Korea. He is an aircraft armament systems technician.

Clifton is the son of Sandy D. Clifton of Route 1, Whiteville, and Carol S. Clifton of Shallotte.

Fashions Shown

An April 6 fashion show and dinner at Sea Trail Golf Club featured fashions from Carringer's in Shallotte.

The event was sponsored by the Brierwood Ladies' Club.

Modeling were Helen Bangs, Helen Conrad, Nearle Einstein, Doris Holk, Sammie Nunn and Ann Soles, assisted by Marge Harper. Conrad also narrated.

The show was coordinated by Annette Carringer and Delores Todd. Maggie O'Mara was chairman of the welcoming committee, said Mary Nicol, publicity chairman.

Plantation Receives Award

April Yard of the Month honors by the Long Bay Garden Club go to the well-tended landscaping at the entrance to Brick Landing Plantation on N.C. 179. In the center are groundskeepers George Delaney, who says his daughters Melissa and Denise assist him, and Jamie Kennedy, flanked by club members Frances Williams and Frances Gravatt. Long Bay also presented the development with a crape myrtle tree as part of its county beautification effort.

Pageant Open To Ages 1-10

Age categories have been changed in the Little Miss and Future Little Miss Tri-Beach Pageant.

The pageant, sponsored by the Tri-Beach Volunteer Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary, will be held Saturday, June 13, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the fire station near Holden Beach.

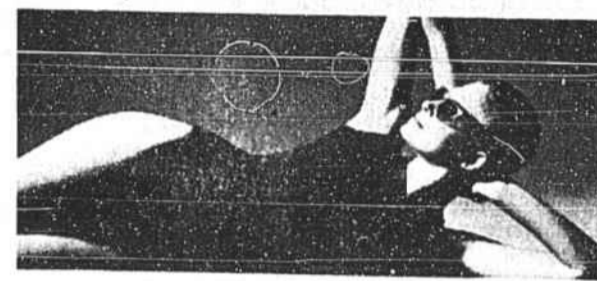

In the Future Little Miss contest, entrants must be one to three years of age. The Little Miss contest is open to girls four to 10 years of age. All entrants must live within the Tri-Beach service district.

Parents who wish to enter their child can do so at the fire station May 7 or 21, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and May 24, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For more information call Erin Fulford at 842-5321.

Proceeds will benefit the fire department.
