Beauty Spot Recognized

A spot that reaps continuous praise from passersby, the plaza at the Ocean Isle Beach intersection, has earned May Yard of the Month honors from the Long Bay Garden Club. It recently presented Ocean Isle Service Center with the prize and, as part of its own efforts to beautify the county, a watermelon red crape myrtle. Shown above, from the left, are Service Center Manager Randall Abernathy; Long Bay Garden Club President Sibyl McLamb; owner Fleet Crowell;

Building and Maintenance Manager William Frank Gause; and Long Bay member Frances Gravatt. The area has always been well-landscaped, but after the intersection was widened, said Gravatt, Crowell's team restored it better than ever, with year-round color. "It's done truly for the community to enjoy," she said. The beds were designed by Roy Roscoe, not pictured, who also grew the flowers from seed.
