Radio Station To Help Raise Playground Funds

A Fayetteville radio station has volunteered to help the Longwood community raise funds for a playground, according to Birleana J. Wright of the Longwood Civic Center.

The Longwood Civic Center is involved in the cultural and financial development of the community. The group launched an effort to build the playground after learning that Brunswick County had already constructed all the playgrounds allocated in the budget.

Foxy 99, a Fayetteville-based radio station, offered to help. On the fourth Saturday of every month through December, beginning May 23, Foxy 99's Greg James will be the featured disc jockey at fund-raising parties to be held at the Longwood Civic Center.

The center is located on Hwy. 904 five miles north of Grissetown, and five miles south of Ash.

The first fund-raising party will be from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Saturday, May 23. Admittance will be a $4.00 donation.

Sun Fun Festival Offers Variety

Sports figures, bathing beauties, jazz in the park and a bubble-gum blowing contest are all part of the fun at the 1987 Sun Fun Festival June 1-7 along South Carolina's Grand Strand.

The festival, named one of the top 20 events in the southeast by the Southeast Tourism Society, traditionally marks the start of the summer vacation season.

Featured events include the Miss Sun Fun and Bikini Wahine contests, the June 6 Sun Fun Parade, dance contests and a continuous schedule of sporting events and beach games.

Games such as sandcastle building and watermelon eating are slated on June 1 oceanfront at the Horseshoe at Ocean Drive, while on June 2, teams of two will compete in the Zinka (colored zinc oxide) body painting on the beach contest, with judging based on creativity.

On June 3, Myrtle Beach Air Force Base will open its gates to the public for "Sun Fun and Aerospace Days." The U.S. Army Golden Knights will skydive several times during the day from 3,000 feet above the ground, while the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds will give a 15-minute show when they arrive on base at 1 p.m. June 1, and then perform again at 4 p.m. on June 3.

Military Retirees Appreciation Day is June 2, with a special practice by the Thunderbirds at 9 a.m. and a show by the Golden Knights at 10 a.m.

Set for the 3rd at North Myrtle Beach are the annual diaper derby, a bubble-gum blowing contest and a smiling contest, in which the person who smiles the longest with eight teeth showing wins a trophy.

On June 4, a leisurely three-mile walk for seniors is planned, with a $3 entry fee.

Volleyball teams will compete June 6 and 7 at Surfside Beach, with a $10 entry fee per team.

Other activities on the South Strand include a best suntan contest at 1 p.m. June 7 at Garden City, followed by a watermelon-eating contest at 2 p.m.

Prior to Saturday's parade, sports marshal Alex Hawkins, a University of South Carolina standout and former football pro turned freelance writer and speaker, will speak at a Sports Breakfast.

Grand Marshal for the Sun Fun Festival will be Larry Manetti, known as Rick Wright on the television series "Magnum, P.I." He will lead the Sun Fun parades in Myrtle Beach and North Myrtle Beach.

Jazz In The Park

June 7, from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. in Myrtle Beach's Chapin Park, five jazz groups will perform Dixieland, progressive and rhythm and blues jazz, followed by an open jam session. Showcased during the afternoon will be The Swing Time Orchestra, the Ramsey-Lee All Stars, the Dixieland Swing Kings, Faction (from Charlotte) and the Columbia Jazz Quartet with 16-year-old saxophonist Chris Potter. In case of rain the event moves to the North Myrtle Beach Community Center on Possum Trot Road.

For a free Sun Fun Souvenir Program, call the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce at 1-800-722-3224 from outside South Carolina, and 1-800-692-2472 from inside South Carolina.
