

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Falor Receives Adcock Award At UNC-W

Rebecca Best Falor of Leland has received the 1987-88 William F. Adcock Jr. Scholarship from the creative arts department of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Named for a former UNC-W music professor and conductor of the Wilmington Symphony, the scholarship is awarded to rising seniors at UNC-W, based on excellence in music, superior academic records and a high standard of performance.

Ms. Falor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Best.

Named Runner-Up

Kathleen Somers of Long Beach was runner-up in the Elizabeth Gibson Taylor Prose Award competition at Peace College in Raleigh this spring.

Her piece appeared in the college's literary magazine, "The Prism."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Somers.

Two Win Awards

Two North Brunswick High School seniors, Richard Kevin Chaisson and Shannon Varia Crainshaw, will be among the first 400 students to receive North Carolina Teaching Fellow Awards.

The Fellows program is part of a state program to recruit top quality students into teaching. Fellows will receive $5,000 per year awards starting this fall. In turn, they agree to major in education and teach for at least four years in a North Carolina public school.

Completes Training

Pvt. Bobby R. Corney learned the duties of a rifle or mortar squad member in one station unit training at the U.S. Army Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga. The 12-week course combined basic combat training and advanced individual training.

He is the son of Bobby R. Corney of St. Pauls and Carol J. Craig of Leland.

Airman Graduates

Airman Robert E. Hewett Jr. has graduated from the U.S. Air Force fuels specialist course at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill.

A 1985 graduate of West Brunswick High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hewett of Route 3, Shallotte.

Newton Cited

Resha Newton of North Brunswick High School in Leland is a merit award winner in the Seventh Congressional District Art Show competition sponsored by Congresswoman Charlie Rose.

The annual competition was open to all high schools in the district, with 114 entries submitted.

A painting by John Russell of Fayetteville, the winning entry, will hang in the U.S. Capitol with those of winners from other districts.

Earns PSU Degree

Barry Leonard of Shallotte was among 294 students to receive bachelor degrees from Pembroke State University at Pembroke on May 9.

He earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration.

Reports For Duty

U.S. Coast Guard Petty Officer Frank P. Hawthorne recently reported for duty at Coast Guard Reserves Training Center, Yorktown, Va.

A Coast Guardsman since 1976, he is the son of Esther Hawthorne of Leland.

Will Graduate

Natalie Joyce Gause, daughter of Vertis and Joyce Gause of Thomasboro, will graduate May 29 from Southeastern Community College.

Gause will have earned an associate in applied science degree in general office technology.

Attends Course

Jeff Long of Longwood was among

32 young tobacco farmers who attended a four-day tobacco short course conducted by the N.C. Agricultural Extension Service with the help of a grant-in-aid from Philip Morris, USA.

The course included an all-day bus trip from Raleigh to Richmond, Va., to visit the Philip Morris leaf processing, manufacturing and research facilities.

Earns Degree

David Patrick Owens, of Route 1, Supply, was awarded a bachelor of arts degree May 9 in commencement exercises at Wingate College, in Wingate.

Completes Training

Ruby W. Mew of Century 21 Carolina Shores Realty of Calabash recently completed a week of intensified training in Charleston, S.C. through a Century 21 program.

The course provides comprehensive study of the basic areas of real estate practices.

Mew, who was the top listing agent for April, joined the firm in February of this year. She and her husband, Dennis, live at Bonaparte's Retreat II.

Sasser Selected

E. Rhone Sasser, president and chief executive officer of United Carolina Bank in Whiteville, has been selected as president-elect of the N.C. Bankers Association.

Glenn Orr Jr., chairman and chief executive officer of Southern National Bank in Lumberton, was elected president.

Brown Graduates

Pvt. 1st Class J.T. Brown has graduated from the U.S. Army Signal Center's single channel radio operator course at Fort Gordon, Ga.

He is the son of Ursula W. and Marvin K. Brown of Route 1, Supply.

Receives Degree

Sara Jean Hicks, daughter of Mrs. Mary G. Hicks of Holden Beach, received the Master of Business Administration degree on May 18 during commencement exercises at Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem.

She earned her B.S. in business at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Attend Camp

LaShonda Stanley of Longwood and Tania Butler of Shallotte, county 4-H Fashion Revue winners, attended 4-H Clothing Camp May 1-3 at Betsy-Jeff Pen 4-H Camp at Reidsville.

They were accompanied by 4-H leader Oleater Stanley of Longwood, said Pearl W. Stanley, county home economics extension agent.

They participated in clothing-related classes and were judged on garment construction, fit and general appearance, poise and clothing record book.

Earns Degree

Charles Emil Niles V of Ash was among students receiving degrees on May 11 as Campbell University at Buies Creek graduated a class of 648.

He earned the bachelor's degree in business administration.

Earns Conduct Medal

The U.S. Coast Guard Good Conduct Medal has been presented to Petty Officer 1st Class George W. Knox, brother of Neila Perkins and Diane Ballard, both of Route 1, Leland, for faithful and obedient service with an unblemished conduct record over a four-year period.

Currently serving at Coast Guard Support Center, Portsmouth, Va., he is a 1975 graduate of North Brunswick High School, Leland.

Completes Training

U.S. Army Private 1st Class William F. Coring III has completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ken.

The 1983 graduate of South Brunswick High School is the grandson of O.W. and Otella Carrier of Southport.

Attends Forum

Dorothy (Dot) Worth, District 2 member of the Brunswick County Board of Education, attended a May 18-19 event in Washington, D.C., sponsored by the National School Board Association called "Alcohol and Drugs: A Forum for School Leaders."

Concerns regarding substance abuse by students were among her interests in election to the board.

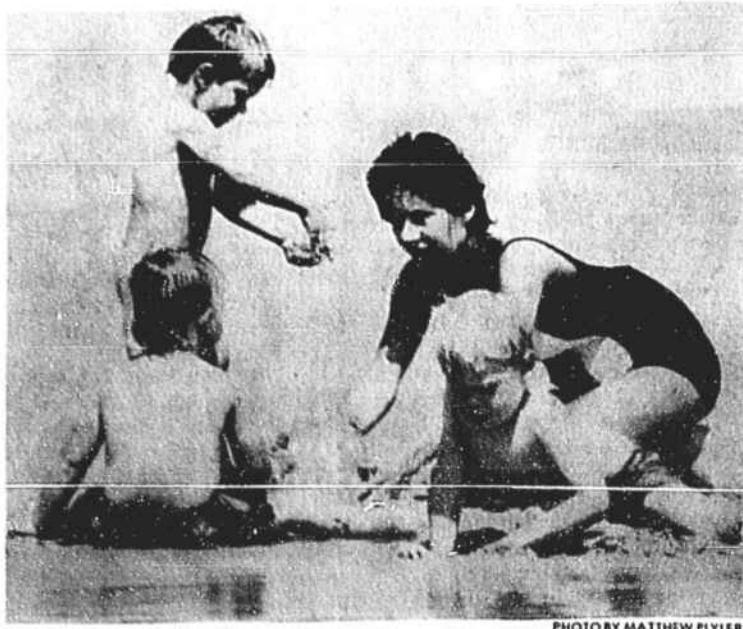

PHOTO BY MATTHEW FLYLER

Castle Under Construction

Beth Dorsch of Nakina, her son Wesley, and nephews Mark and Brett, get ready to build a sand castle on the strand at Ocean Isle Beach last Friday.

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND SALE

Thursday thru Monday

Men's Sportcoats

Linen
Silk
Suede

30% OFF

*Gentlemen's Quarters
of Victoria's Ragpatch*

RAGPATCH ROW, CALABASH, 579-2015
MALL PLAZA, 27th AVE. N., MYRTLE BEACH, 626-4888

©1987 THE BRUNSWICK BEACON

Although styles have changed through the years, Victoria's Ragpatch, Inc. remains today what it started out to be—one of the finest speciality stores . . . with the most exciting fashion looks, the most spirited sportswear, the most talked-about cocktail dressing, the most original accessories . . . and personal service that's legendary.

Southern hospitality makes Victoria's Ragpatch, Inc. THE PLACE to shop whether you are a visitor to our area or a local resident.

Gorgeous fashions in sizes 4 to 26W.

Good taste is something you grow up with...

Victoria's Ragpatch

dixie baldwin, ltd.

...our newest addition of fine furnishings and collectibles.

Ragpatch Row
Calabash, NC
579-2015
Hours 10-9

Ocean Isle Causeway
Ocean Isle Beach
579-3158
Hours 10-6

Mall Plaza, 27th Ave. N.
Myrtle Beach, SC
626-4888
Hours 10-6

Model—Amy Sossamon

COMPLETE INTERIOR DECORATING SERVICE

- Mini blinds
- Vertical blinds
- Micro blinds
- Carpet
- Wallpaper
- Draperies
- Pictures

Ruby Floyd

Ocean Isle Interiors

3 Ocean Isle Square
Ocean Isle Beach Causeway

579-6091

1986 THE BRUNSWICK BEACON