N.C. Trivia Quiz

Do you think you know a lot about the Tar Heel state? Wish you knew more? Do you enjoy collecting trivial information?

Take the following quiz and acquire detailed knowledge along with conversation-starters you can use to impress your friends.

Questions come from the newly-published North Carolina Trivia, compiled by Ernie and Jill Couch, and answers can be found below.

1. To gain recognition, what community started an annual event featuring lizard races?
2. Blackbeard's Revenge, an outdoor drama depicting Blackbeard's life before he became the infamous pirate, is performed where?
3. On Aug. 18, 1587, who became the first child born of English parents in the New World?
4. While living in Bath in 1925, what novelist won the Pulitzer Prize for the novel So Big?
5. Where is the U.S. Open King Mackerel Tournament held?
6. The high-caffeine leaves of what evergreen are dried and brewed into tea, also provide the name for a Brunswick County municipality?
7. Which community in Caswell County was named by those who said the land was so poor, "a rabbit had to shuffle to get his rations"?
8. For what television special series did Charles Kuralt, a Wilmington native, win an Emmy in 1969?
9. How did North Carolina rank chronologically in joining the Union?
10. What is the mascot of North Carolina State University?

House Can Have Split Personality

Brooklyn.

The Coppages are happy with their choice of Brunswick County for retirement living.

"We were attracted here by a real estate ad in the New York Times," Channing said. "We came to look and right away bought a lot. There was no subdivision here, then, just wilderness and a dirt road."

But the lot was five minutes from the beach and had a stunning view of a lake, so they were quickly sold on the location.

Now they enjoy more than the house and its view; they are part of a congenial community. "Most of the people we know here are imports, like us," Ruth said.

And, like many of the other "imports," these northerners have brought their distinctive touch to a southern subdivision home.
