Holiday Brings Heavy Traffic

Five accidents occurred in Shallotte over the long and busy Memorial Day weekend.

Saturday at 9:33 a.m. at the intersection of N.C. 130 and U.S. 17 south, Michael Francis Sullivan, 23, of Long Beach, was making a left turn from Blake Street onto U.S. 17 south, driving a 2½-ton N.C. National Guard truck when he struck a 1982 Chevrolet car operated by Linda Jean White, 34, of Route 1, Rocky Point. She was crossing from N.C. 130 West to Blake Street at the time. The impact pushed her car back into the 1987 Ford van behind her, operated by Clayton Dale Battin, 39, of Massillon, Ohio, causing about $50 damage to the right front wheel.

Damages to White's car were estimated at $3,000, while Sullivan's truck had about $800 in damages to the fuel tank and fender.

Sullivan said he didn't see White's car. He was cited by Patrolman C.B. Yager for failure to make a safe movement.

White was transported to the Brunswick Hospital with injuries.

At 3:27 p.m. Saturday, 500 feet east of U.S. 17 on N.C. 130 (Holden Beach Road), Larry Allen Evans, 24, of Route 3, Shallotte, was westbound on N.C. 130 in a 1984 Chevrolet. Westbound ahead of Evans, Grete Probst Spaulding of Fayetteville, had slowed and was turning right into the Milliken Shopping Center in the 1986 Dodge car she was operating. Evans swerved left in an attempt to avoid striking the car, but hit its left rear. Damages were estimated at $800 to Evans' car and to Spaulding's car.

No injuries were reported.

Patrolman C.B. Yager cited Evans for failure to make a safe movement.

Kimberly Danford McLamb, 25, of Route 1, Supply, was driving a 1980 Plymouth Sunday at 12:40 a.m. Sunday when she backed from a spot in the Market Express parking lot on U.S. 17 in Shallotte and struck a 1987 Ford operated by Steven Joseph Robinson of Route 2, Supply.

She left the scene and later told Patrolman Joey Hoagland she didn't realize she'd hit Robinson's car. She was charged with hit and run with property damage by Shallotte Patrolman C.B. Yager.

Damages to McLamb's car were an estimated $50, and to Robinson's, an estimated $400.

No injuries were reported.

Several wrecks also occurred Sunday.

At 9 o'clock that night Patrolman Joey Hoagland was called to the intersection of U.S. 17 and Mulberry Street.

William Henderson Johnson, 46, of Route 2, Supply, was driving a Dodge truck when he turned right onto U.S. 17 from Mulberry Street, striking a 1984 Pontiac operated by Lisa Marie Inks, 21, of Pleasant Garden.

No injuries were reported. Johnson was cited for failure to make a safe movement.

Minutes later, an accident occurred on U.S. 17 500 feet south of its intersection with N.C. 130 West.

Richard Sherwood Hill, 19, of Shallotte, was southbound on U.S. 17 when Lawrence R. Wigal, 73, made a left turn in front of him from the center lane.

Damages to Hill's 1972 Ford were estimated at $600 and to Wigal's 1982

Pontiac, $3,000. There were no injuries.

Based on witnesses' comments, there were questions about whether Hill's headlights had been on before the collision.

Hoagland cited Wigal for failure to yield the right-of-way.

In a minor incident over the weekend, slight damage was done to the drive-through area at the Kentucky Fried Chicken outlet on U.S. 17 south after an oversize vehicle went through.

Our Moment Of Truth Happens

50,000 TIMES A DAY

When was the last time you heard about a banker skipping a coffee break? Or going home late? Miracles like these happen almost daily at United Carolina Bank. Because we have a different priority than most banks. Our priority is you, the Customer.

We think service should go beyond a teller's smile. To us, our "moment of truth" happens every time our business touches you or your account. Which in our case averages about 50,000 times a day.

It's the kind of Customer-first attitude that's a part of everybody who works for you at UCB. Because in everything we do, we look at it from your point of view. To make ours the kind of bank you've wanted all along.
