Nubel Earns Master's Degree

Dawn Ellen Nubel of Route 6, Shallotte, was awarded the master of education degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in commencement exercises held May 10.

The former Brunswick Beacon staff writer's concentration was in guidance and counseling.

Cheryl L. Rose of Southport, a broadcasting and cinema major, received the bachelor of arts degree.

Gray Elected

Kimberly Gray of Shallotte has been elected sophomore representative to parliament of the Student Government Association at Lees-McRae College at Banner Elk for the 1987-88 school year.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Peggy Gibson of Shallotte and H.W. Gray III of Louisville, Ken.

Baxley Competed

Kelly Anne Baxley of Shallotte competed in the Central Regional Mathematics Competition in geometry held April 30 at Davidson County Community College in Lexington.

A freshman at West Brunswick High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Baxley.

Students were eligible to compete in the event on the basis of their performance in preliminary contests.

Recital Held

Renee Young of Leland presented her senior piano recital May 26 at Glisson Music Mart's recital hall in Wilmington. A senior at North Brunswick High School, she is the daughter of David and Shirley Young. She has studied piano for 10 years under Dr. Carolyn Gresham, receiving numerous awards, and has studied voice for seven years under David Bass. She has competed in various pageants. She was the talent winner in the Tri-County Ideal Miss, State Miss Photogenic and North Carolina State Miss Christmas pageants.

On Dean's List

Christina Elaine Trexler of Southport has been named to the spring semester dean's list at Wingate College, Wingate.

To qualify, she carried at least 12 hours of academic work, have had no grade below a C, and have made at least a 3.3 grade point average.

Wins Ag Award

Gayther Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Simmons of Ash, was named winner of the 1987 agricultural accomplishment award sponsored nationwide by Dekalb-Pfizer Genetics.

The award is presented to the senior agriculture student with highest achievement in scholarship, leadership and a supervised agricultural program.

Simmons attends West Brunswick High School, where he has been secretary and reporter of the local Future Farmers of America chapter. His agricultural program consists of livestock, corn, soybeans and farm mechanics.

Pilot Club Safety Projects Are Winners

The Pilot Club of South Brunswick Islands took first place at the April district convention in Raleigh, for outstanding safety work in Brunswick County.

- Its current projects include:
- a fire safety poster contest for Union Primary second graders;
 - a visit to the school by a fire truck;
 - first aid instructions at Shallotte Middle School by the Shallotte Rescue Squad;
 - purchase of two films for the county on domestic dilemmas and the anatomy and behavior of a fire;
 - purchase of two child safety seats for free use in the county;
 - and a push for an emergency dispatch system, 911. The club's recent fund-raiser, a grocery shopping spree, was successful, with Lacey Tripp and Jimmy Hewett as winners.

The group was represented at the convention by Sherry Roseman, Gail Seagle, Kay Couvillon, and Gigi Gore.

Roseman and Seagle will attend the Pilot International convention July 25-28 in Dallas, Texas.

Roseman has been appointed extension area leader for the district, to form new Pilot clubs.

During June the local club will send a packet of travel information about the Brunswick Islands to England.

WHAT IS CONTINUING EDUCATION?

Adult Continuing Education Courses provide a wide variety of educational opportunities for the adult at convenient times in many locations throughout Brunswick County. The program is comprehensive by design, to meet a wide variety of educational needs. Courses are offered for those who want to learn to read; while on the other end of the spectrum, training is provided for Volunteer Firemen, Rescue Personnel, Law Enforcement Officers, and new and expanding industry. Continuing Education Courses are designed for a lifelong learning process and do not provide college credit.

WHO MAY ENROLL?

Enrollment in Continuing Education is open to any adult who is eighteen years of age or older. Registration is usually held at the first and second class meetings.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The registration fee for Occupational Courses is $15.00 per course. Students are responsible for buying supplies and materials as necessary. There is no charge for Volunteer Fire Department Personnel, Volunteer Rescue Personnel, or Local Law Enforcement Officers for their special training programs. North Carolina residents 65 years of age or older are exempted from registration fees. There is no cost for High School Equivalency (GED) courses or Adult Basic Education courses.

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THESE COURSES?

More information about Adult Continuing Education courses is available by calling the Continuing Education Department at Brunswick Technical College in Supply (754-6900) or in Southport (457-6324). Residents of the Southport/Oak Island area may dial the Supply Campus toll free by dialing 457-6329.

CURRICULUM CLASSES

Registration for Curriculum Classes will be held from 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m. June 23 at the main campus in Supply. Tuition for full-time students is $66.00 per quarter. Tuition for part-time students is $5.50 per credit hour.
