Eight Make Southeastern Honor List

Eight Brunswick County students are included on the spring quarter achievement list at Southeastern Community College in Chadbourn, with averages of 3.25 or better on at least 12 hours of work.

Earning a 4.0 were Freda King Babson, Ash, associate degree nursing program; Peggy Dennis Reeves, Shalotte, early childhood associate program; Amanda Lee Pierce, Shalotte, cosmetology program; and Steven Bryan O'Steen, Leland, electrical engineering.

Also listed, with grade point averages of 3.5 or higher, are Edith Cheryl Bennett, Sheila Morgan Jenrette and Sheila Pearl Vaught, all of Shalotte, college transfer program; and Tommy Martin Cribb, Ash, air conditioning, heating and refrigeration.

Earn ECU Degrees

Three Brunswick County students received degrees in May 9 commencement exercises at East Carolina University in Greenville.

They are Kelly Smith Safrit of Sunset Beach, B.S. in housing; Andre Lemeac Minor, doctor of medicine, Bowling Spring Lakes; and Edward Marvin McKeithan, Route 2, Bolivia, B.S. in nursing.

Willis Listed

Senior Anne Renee Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Willis of Shalotte, attained the spring semester chancellor's list at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

To qualify, a student must earn a quality point average of 3.60, with no grade below C, taking at least 12 semester hours of study.

To Study Conservation

Philip Jeffrey Russ, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Russ of Shalotte, will represent the Brunswick Soil and Water Conservation District in Raleigh June 21-26 at the 23rd Resource Conservation Workshop.

He is one of more than 80 rising high school juniors and seniors who will study the management of wildlife, soils, forest and watersheds at N.C. State University and sites in Wake County.

Russ's interest is in learning to preserve topsoil.
