Harry Pickett Joins Staff Of Observer

A former Brunswick Beacon high school sports writer, Harry Pickett, has joined the sports department of The Charlotte Observer, effective July 13.

As sports slot editor, Pickett, 27, will design pages, edit wire service stories and photographs and coordinate a team of copy editors for the daily's six editions.

For 3½ years he has been sports editor of The Watauga Democrat in Boone. During his tenure the department earned first-place honors twice from the North Carolina Press Association and placed third in the National Newspaper Association competition for "Best Sports Pages." He is the son of John and Annie Pickett Bryant of Hampton, Va., and the late Harry Pickett Sr. His grandparents are Mrs. Gertrude Williams and Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Pickett of Shallotte.

Pickett is married to the former Dianne Whittington of Boone. They have a son, Harry Brandon III, 4.

In SITE Program

Aaron T. Clemmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Clemmons of Southport, was among 100 students to participate July 5-11 in a Student Introduction to Engineering (SITE) program at N.C. State University in Raleigh.

The South Brunswick High School student participated in demonstration classes and lab exercises in various engineering fields and career exploration sessions, and events with NCSU engineering students and professors and practicing engineers.

Driver Named

Lisa Stanley has been named driver of the month for June at Union Primary School. She drives Bus No. 5. Ms. Stanley has been a teacher's assistant for two years at Union and is secretary of the Bus Stop Gang.

Shallotte Woman Will Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Graham Stanley of Shallotte have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Marcella Renee Stanley, to Kenneth Lorenz Tillman, at 4 p.m., July 25, at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Shallotte.

A reception will follow the ceremony, and friends and relatives are invited.

You're Worth It!

Self-esteem isn't built on other's opinions - it's how one feels about herself. You are the only one who can determine your self-worth. Never be too busy for YOU — you are too important.

If you feel good and take care of yourself, you'll be in a better position to help others. IT'S UP TO YOU!

Homemakers' Club Program Stresses Values

A program on values was presented by President Eleanor Hoff at the July meeting of the Beachcombers Extension Homemakers Club.

She stressed that each one should develop a set of personal values and adhere to them, putting into action community, economic and moral values.

New member Carolyn Stillweil was recognized during the business meeting.

Reports were given of the party held for residents of Brunswick

Village and one honoring charter member Effie Parker.

Plans were made for hosting the county council meeting July 20.

The August 12 club meeting will be held at the Shallotte library.

A craft workshop was conducted by Hoff after the meeting.
