

Five Hurt In Brunswick Wreck

Five motorists were injured in a head-on collision Saturday near Bolivia; a Leland woman was charged in connection with the accident.

According to Highway Patrol Spokesperson Ruby Oakley, the accident occurred Saturday at 8:10 p.m. 6.2 miles north of Bolivia at the intersection of S.R. 1406 (Cherrytree Road) and S.R. 1410 (Green Hill Road).

A report filed by Trooper D.B. Harvell stated the wreck occurred when Kay Meyer Todd, 30, of Leland failed to yield the right-of-way to another vehicle at the intersection.

Todd's 1981 Datsun, which was traveling east on 1410, collided head-on with a 1982 AMC driven by Leah Gayle O'Daniels, 16, of Boiling Springs Lakes; the O'Daniels auto was traveling west on 1406, Ms. Oakley said.

Harvell charged Ms. Todd with a yield violation in the accident.

Injured in the wreck, in addition to both drivers, were: Becky Register, 25, of Leland, a passenger in the Todd car; Mark Scott Sherfinski, 18, and Stacey Bullard, 16, both Southport residents and passengers in the O'Daniels vehicle. Two children, who were riding in the back seat of the Todd car were not injured, Ms. Oakley said.

All five injured persons were transported by rescue squad ambulances to New Hanover Memorial Hospital in Wilmington.

A hospital spokesperson said all but Ms. Register were treated and released Saturday; Ms. Register was released from care on Monday.

Harvell estimated damages at $1,000 to the Todd auto and $1,200 to the O'Daniels car.

Four other motorists escaped serious injury in a traffic accident early Saturday in Brunswick County.

Ms. Oakley said the mishap occurred Saturday at 1 a.m., 1.8 miles north of Yaupon Beach on N.C. 133.

A 1982 Toyota driven by Edward Clarence Hawkins, 36, of Bolivia, struck the rear of a 1985 Pontiac driven by Charles Scott Taylor, 21, also of Bolivia, Ms. Oakley said.

The rear-end collision did an estimated $2,500 damage to the Toyota and $3,000 to the Pontiac, she said.

Trooper Harvell charged Hawkins with driving while impaired, she said.

She added that both drivers and two passengers in the Taylor vehicle suffered minor injuries in the wreck and were transported by ambulance to Doshier Memorial Hospital in Southport.

A Shallotte man was charged driving while impaired in a weekend wreck in Brunswick County.

According to Ms. Oakley, the accident occurred Friday night, two miles west of Cuba.

1356 (Marlowtown Road).

She said Linwood Taylor, of Shallotte, lost control of a Chevrolet truck after it veered back onto the road and crossed the center line, side-swiping a Pontiac driven by Rocky Lee of Little River, S.C.

Ms. Oakley said Taylor and Richardson charged Taylor with driving without a license.

Neither driver was injured. Damages were estimated at $2,000 to the Daley truck and $2,000 to the sent auto, she said.

Kids Helping Kids

Carolinas Choice 4-Hers Amy Royal, Jeremy Sellers and leader Linda Sellers of Supply take their turn staffing a table at the McDonald's in Shallotte last weekend, collecting a donation from Greg Bland. Donations to the "Kids Helping Kids" campaign will be shared by two projects that help kids: 4-H and Ronald McDonald Houses. Billy Privette, assistant extension agent for 4-H, said the 4-Hers will be visible across the county throughout October soliciting funds in addition to the $150 received last weekend.

Congressman Rose To Speak At BEMC Annual Meeting

Congressman Charlie Rose will be the keynote speaker at the 30th annual meeting of the Atlantic Telephone Membership Corp. on Oct. 23 in Shallotte.

The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium of West Brunswick High School, with lines open for registration starting at 4 p.m. Cross Roads Band will entertain prior to the meeting.

Three directors will be elected to three-year terms during the session. Candidates selected by the nominating committee are incumbents Lyle Ray King, district 1; Carol H. Danford, District 3; and Douglas H. Hawes, district 6.

Additional nominations may be made from the floor of the meeting.

Any member who cannot attend the meeting in person can assign a proxy to vote to another member. For the first time, this year proxies to be voted at the annual meeting must be registered and certified the day before the annual meeting, or no later than Oct. 22 at 5 p.m.

Proxy certifications will be handled at the ATMC office on N.C. 130 west.

No member may vote more than five certified proxies plus his own vote for the purpose of electing directors.

Congressman Rose of Fayetteville was first elected in 1972. He is chairman of the subcommittee on Tobacco and Peanuts of the House Committee on Agriculture and members of the Subcommittee on Cotton, Rice and Sugar and the Department of Operations, Research and Foreign Agriculture. He is also chairman of the Speaker's Advisory Committee on Broadcasting, chairman of the House Recording Studio, founder of the Congressional Rural Caucus, founder of the Policy Group on Information and Computers of the Committee on House Administration and chairman of the Subcommittee on Elections.

Rose also serves as a member of the Democratic Personnel Committee, vice chairman of the Democratic Study Group and a whip at large. He represents the state on the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee.

He is married to the former Joan Teague from Winston-Salem.

New dollar bills will be given to the first 300 members to register. Members will receive mementos and will be eligible for door prizes and a color TV drawing.

During the business session, audit, financial and operating reports will be presented.
