Festival Seeks Bridge Players

It's not too early to start forming foursomes for bridge during the N.C. Festival By-the-Sea at Holden Beach Oct. 30 and 31.

Helen White, chairman of the Oct. 31 bridge party, said tables would be set up for play starting at 1 p.m. at the Holden Beach Town Hall for a "friendly game of rubber bridge."

Last year approximately 24 people played; more are expected this year. Foursomes should register early, Mrs. White said, so she will plan on enough tables.

"We want everyone to come and get acquainted," she added. "We're trying to make it a fun afternoon. There's no time limit since we're at the town hall."

Numerous prizes will be offered, including seafood, groceries, passes for free dinners and the like.

Cost is $2 per person, with cards, tables and refreshments provided. Players are welcome to bring their own cards also. Mrs. White will try to help create foursomes for individuals who are interested in playing if they call far enough in advance.

To sign up, call Mrs. White at 842-4758.
