

Run To 'Kick Off' Festival

BY RAHN ADAMS

"It was great fun last year, and we expect this year's race to be even better."

That's how Race Chairman John Hicks describes the Seventh Annual N.C. Oyster Festival Run, scheduled for Oct. 10 at 8:30 a.m. at Holden Beach—the event that kicks off the annual two-day celebration.

For the second consecutive year, the race is being sponsored by WPGO Radio Station in Shallotte, where Hicks is general manager.

This year's Oyster Festival Run again will feature three events: five- and 10-kilometer races, in addition to a one-mile fun run.

The races, which will cover a flat, out-and-back course, will start and finish at Surfside Pavilion on Ocean Boulevard East.

According to Hicks, entrants typically come from across the state to participate in the Oyster Festival Run.

Last year, the three-race field consisted of 71 runners and even had an international flavor. Helena Eriksson of Sweden won the 13-19 age group in the women's 5K race.

Overall men's winners last year included David Holden of Wilmington in the fun run, covering the one-mile course in 5:05; Colin Smith, Holden Beach, in the 5K with a 17:40 clocking; and Steve Moffat of White Oak, in the 10K with a 33:00 mark.

In women's competition last year, overall winners included Kelly Corl of Rockwell, finishing first in the fun run with a 7:20 time; and Stephanie Agosta of Wilmington, capturing the 5K with a 19:00 mark.

Again this year, trophies will be awarded to the top four male and female finishers in the fun run, 5K and 10K races. First-place finishers in each age group in the 5K and 10K races also will receive trophies, although overall winners will not be eligible for age-group awards.

All finishers will receive custom silk ribbons.

Age groups in the 5K and 10K races are as follows: 12 and under, 13-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, and 50 and over.

Runners who pre-registered by Oct. 6 will receive an Oyster Festival T-shirt for their $8 entry fee. The registration fee for other entrants, including those who sign-up on race day, is $6 and does not include a T-shirt.

For more information on the 1987 Oyster Festival Run, contact WPGO Radio Station or the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, both in Shallotte.
