

Hewett, Ramsey Vows Exchanged In Florida

Jamie Hewett and James Ramsey were married Aug. 29 at 6 p.m. at Bethany Temple Church of God in Tarpon Springs, Fla.

Rev. Robert E. Varnadore officiated the double-ring, candlelight service. Music was provided by Angela Varnadore, soloist, who sang, "The Wedding Prayer" and "God, Man, and Woman." Also the groom sang to his bride, "Wind Beneath My Wings."

The bride is the daughter of James and Emma Hewett of Holiday, Fla., and the granddaughter of Eunice Hewett and Eva Causey, both of Shallotte.

The groom is the son of James and Mary Ramsey of New Port Richey, Fla.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white raschel lace with a standup collar of Venise lace with appliques of simulated pearls and sequins with pearl drops, a sheer illusion front and back yoke trimmed with Venise lace. Appliqued simulated pearls and sequins covered the front of the fitted bodice, coming to a point over the basque waistline. The leg-o'-mutton sleeves had matching appliques coming to a point over the wrist. Her lace-trimmed full skirt extended into a chapel length train.

She wore a bridal hat of acetate satin trimmed with Venise lace, simulated pearls and a spray of flowers, with an attached fingertip veil and blusher of nylon illusion.

Her cascading bouquet consisted of tacked white roses, lace and pearls attached to a lace-covered Bible that had belonged to her grandmother, the late Emma Bennett of Thomasboro.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Pam Hewett of Clearwater, Fla. Bridesmaids were Arlene Page of Tampa, Fla.; and Doris Lang of Tarpon Springs, Fla., both friends of the bride.

They wore identical rose taffeta gowns with sweetheart neckline, Napoleon sleeves, modified empire waistline and a full skirt with ruffles sweeping into a train in back, with bustle effect. They carried white wicker baskets of mauve and white silk roses and lily of the valley, with staggered white streamers and wore headpieces with white roses and mauve flowers with mauve ribbons.

The groom chose as his best man Robert Sommers. Ushers were Craig Thompson, his brother-in-law, of Port Richey, Fla.; and Allen Hewett, brother of the bride, of Tarpon Springs, Fla.

The groom wore a gray Dynasty cutaway tuxedo, with white rose boutonniere. His men wore Dynasty tuxedos with white and mauve carnation boutonnieres.

The sanctuary was decorated with palms and ferns, a 16-light arched candelabra decorated with ivy and white bows, kneeling bench and unity candle, with two white wicker stands of ferns flanking the altar.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

Following a honeymoon trip to Cancun, Mexico, the newlyweds are making their home in New Port Richey, Fla.

The bride is a graduate of Gulf Comprehensive High School and Webster Business College, both in New Port Richey, and is employed as a medical assistant for Dr. Marcus Occhipinti in Tarpon Springs.

Her husband is a graduate of Open Door Christian School in Elyria, Ohio. He is assistant manager of H.L. Stansell Inc., in Palm Harbor, Fla.

Gore, Canady Vows Are Exchanged

Andrea Lindsey Gore and Dailey Kendall Canady were married Oct. 10 at 3 p.m. at First Baptist Church in Shallotte.

The Rev. Eddie Booth, pastor, officiated the double-ring, candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Steve A. Gore of Shallotte and Mrs. Kay Bright of Shallotte. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dailey Canady of Longwood.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Gee Gee Gore of Shallotte and Ms. Tammy Ward of Whiteville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white matte taffeta gown with long tapered sleeves worn slightly off the shoulders and a bodice of heavily beaded silk Venise lace. The semi-cathedral train was accented with self bow and long flowing streamers.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white miniature carnations, Sonia roses, babies' breath and a variety of greenery.

Her attendants wore blue taffeta tea-length dresses and carried single long-stemmed Sonia roses with white lace streamers.

Mrs. Audria Fulwood served as her sister's matron of honor.

The maid of honor was Sara Hardee of Calabash. Bridesmaids were Sami Canady of Hickman's Crossroads, sister-in-law of the groom, and Elizabeth Norris of Ash, cousin of the bride.

The groom's father served as his best man.

Ushers were Randy Wilson of Calabash and Kenneth Lanson of Longwood and Harry Canady of Hickman's Crossroads, brothers of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

After a wedding trip to South Carolina, the newlyweds will reside in Longwood.

Babson, McKenzie Wed In Wilmington

Diana Lee Babson and Dr. James Spain McKenzie were married Saturday, Oct. 3 at 5 p.m. at Calvary Baptist Church, Wilmington.

The Rev. Clayton McLawhon performed the double-ring ceremony. Music was provided by Ivey Hunter-James, organist, and Jeffrey Harmon, stepbrother of the bride, flutist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Harmon of Wilmington and M. Leroy Babson of Scotts Hill. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Richards of Grissetown and Mrs. Iona Napier of Ash.

The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James P. McKenzie of Raleigh.

Given in marriage by her family and escorted by her grandfather, John H. Richards of Shallotte, the bride wore a formal gown of satin with silk floss Schiffli embroidery and a hand-beaded yoke. Pleats accented the renaissance sleeves.

Suzanne McMahan served as matron of honor. Also attending the bride were Ann McKenzie and Connie Hussey, sisters of the groom; Laura Currie, Beverly Hester and Mary Lou Kornegay. They wore tea length gowns of ruby taffeta.

Robert Brown III served as best man. Groomsmen were Jonathan Babson, brother of the bride; Scott Harmon and Tracy Harmon, step-brothers of the bride; Jack Hussey, brother-in-law of the groom; and Harry Marr.

The ceremony was directed by Mrs. Joyce James Smith. Miss Brooke Bundy and Miss Denise Repass attended the guest book.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Blockade Runner Hotel at Wrightsville Beach. The rehearsal dinner was held at the Riverboat Landing Restaurant in Wilmington.

Miscellaneous bridal showers were hosted in Chapel Hill by Suzanne McMahan and Laura Currie and in Wilmington by Lorraine Flynn and Joyce Smith.

The bride received her B.S. degree in dental hygiene from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is employed in Wake Forest.

The groom received his B.S. degree in biology from N.C. State University and his doctor of dental surgery degree from UNC-Chapel Hill. He practices in Essex.

After a honeymoon cruise to Cancun and Cozumel, Mexico, the couple will reside in Wake Forest.
