

Jones, Evans Vows Exchanged At Shell Point

Amy Denise Jones and Christopher DeWayne Evans were married Aug. 2 at Shell Point Baptist Church.

Rev. Maurice Milligan performed the double-ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Tim Watson provided the music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Jones Jr. of Supply and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Evans of Supply.

Wedding vows were exchanged by the couple before a setting that included an arched candelabrum, a pair of inverted-V candelabrum and a pair of spiral candelabrum. Two baskets of assorted flowers on brass stands and palms decorated the altar. Pews were marked with white bows. Candles with babies' breath and greenery accented the church windows. A Unity candle was lighted as part of the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin Piccione gown with a princess seam bodice molded in heavily beaded pearls and lace, puffed sleeves worn slightly off the shoulder and a Basque waist that gathered into a full skirt with a semicathedral train hemmed with Venice lace.

Her headpiece was a beaded crystal beaded wreath with long flowing veil accented with streamers of lily of the valley and pearls.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white and pink roses with babies' breath and greenery.

Chandee Varnam, her best friend, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Monica Gore, cousin of the bride, June Hrubik, sister of the groom, and Sonya Brown, friend of the bride. They wore identical tea-length strapless gowns of cerise taffeta with bows at front and back and matching shoes.

Shannon Hughes, friend of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a long pink and white dress accented with a bow in back.

The groom's father served as his best man. Ushers were Barry Evans, brother of the groom, Paul Jones, brother of the bride, and Charles Phelps, friend of the groom. Adam Long, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

The groom and ringbearer wore white Dynasty tuxedos with tails, with a double pink rose boutonniere. His men wore identical tuxedos in black, with cerise bowties and cummerbunds.

Suzanne Hewett registered guests. Debbie Long directed the wedding.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall, with a toast by the bride to her family following the cake-cutting.

A shower honoring the couple was given by Debbie Long and Suzanne Hewett at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride and groom are graduates of West Brunswick High School. She is employed by Optical Gallery in Shallotte. He is employed by Cottrell Engineering Corp. of Chesapeake, Va.

After a wedding trip to the North Carolina mountains, the newlyweds will reside in Supply.

Try More Than 'Relief' For Your Next Headache

BY DR. VICTORIA E. WEBSTER
Doctor of Chiropractic

Of all the so-called triumphs of the pharmaceutical industry, the 'headache remedy' is the most dangerous to life and health.

I don't want to convey the image that headache pills are poison and are in themselves dangerous to life. However, the less toxic and the more apparently effective remedy is dangerous because it suppresses a symptom, while the trouble caused by the symptom may continue to progress.

Pain, particularly headache pain, is the alarm bell which nature employs to signal 'FIRE.' Ringing the 'fire' alarm never put out the fire.

There are headaches that seem to have a simple cause. The morning-after' type, for instance. And it usually passes as soon as its cause—a clogged digestive tract—has been cleared.

Other headaches, particularly the chronic or recurring type, will send the careful, intelligent person straight to the doctor.

The causes of headaches are many. They include digestive eliminative, kidney and heart troubles, eyestrain, infected tonsils, nerve pressure from spinal conditions and sometimes brain trouble itself.

However, in no condition will a headache be eliminated until the cause has been determined and corrected.

Whatever the cause, the headache symptom should be accepted as a natural bodily warning to seek proper diagnosis and treatment of the problem.

Many individuals seek Chiropractic care both for relief of the headache symptom and for the correction of the underlying cause.
