Reunion Set

The annual Waccamaw School reunion will be held Saturday, Oct. 24, at 6 p.m., at Dockside Seafood House in Calabash.

Anyone who attended the school, which is located in the Ash community, is invited to attend the reunion and bring a friend.

For more information, contact J.B. Simpson at 754-8240.

Women Raise $200 For March Of Dimes

The Calabash VFW Post No. 7288 Ladies Auxiliary raised more than $200 for the Eastern North Carolina Chapter of the March of Dimes at an Oct. 9 bake sale at Coastal Plaza in Shalotte.

President Florence Cook said the auxiliary collected $202.67.

"We thank all those who made our sale a success," she said.

Locally, through its Wilmington office, the March of Dimes provides public health education for expectant mothers and others interested in combating birth defects; provides films, literature and speakers on birth defects at no charge; and provides limited patient aid services to certain families with birth defective children.

Nationally the organization also supports research into the cause and prevention of birth defects.

Richardsons' Yard Cited

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Richardson of Old Shalotte Road near Grissettown are the latest recipients of the Long Bay Garden Club's Yard of the Month award, presented above by (far left) Doris Olivito, along with a complimentary crape myrtle which Mrs. Richardson said she'll name "Long Bay" in keeping with her tradition of naming the extensive plantings in their large, inviting yard.

Seniors Decide On Fund-Raiser

The Shalotte Senior Citizens Club met Oct. 12 at the center.

During the business session led by President Fannie Keeton, members decided to sell Christmas cards and pocket calendars as a fund-raising project.

Four new members were welcomed: Lily Bryant, Erivee Gilmore, Mable Redwine and Willard Redwine.

In other activity, Mrs. Keeton led the membership in singing "America" and read the poem, "Columbus," by Joaquin Miller. Mrs. Annie Bryant, chaplain, gave the devotional and Mrs. Hester Shytle, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes and called the roll.

The club meets the second Monday of each month at 12:30 p.m. at the center.

Awards Night Set

The Brunswick County Council of Extension Homemakers Clubs will hold its annual achievement and awards night dinner on Thursday, Oct. 29, at 6:45 p.m.

The dinner will be held in the Public Assembly Building at the Brunswick County Government Complex in Bolivia.

For more information, call 253-4425.

Fundraiser Set

The 1965 graduating class of Union High School will hold a fish fry fundraiser on Saturday, Oct. 31, beginning at 12 noon at Shalotte Municipal Park.

Menu will include fried fish, hush puppies, cole slaw and candied yams. Hot dogs also will be available.

The public is invited.

Right To Life Meets Tonight

Brunswick County Right To Life meets today (Oct. 22) at 7 p.m. in the fellowship hall of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church in Supply.

Spokesman Jimmy Hobbs said the program will be a showing of "Eclipse of Reason," a new film by Dr. Bernard Nathanson.

All interested persons are invited to attend.

DAR Hears Program On Flag

Brunswick County Veteran Service Officer Jess Parker, who is also a vexillologist, presented a program on the U.S. flag on Oct. 14 to the Brunswick Town Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

He discussed the U.S. Flag Code governing the display and use of the flag, and the history of the flag.

He was introduced by Miss Helen Taylor, chapter vice-regent, and presented a copy of the NSDAR publication, "Washington Landmarks."

The club met at the home of Mrs. W.A. Kopp in Bolivia, with members Barbara Smith, Sarah Kopp, Myrtle Watson, Mary Sue Floyd, Cecelia Franck, Virginia Lloyd, Patsy Wood, Helen Taylor, Vail Ellis and Abbie Bitney present.

Chapter Regent Vail Ellis presided at the business meeting, with opened with devotions and patriotic exercises led by Chaplain Myrtle Watson.

Reports were given by committee chairmen and the national defense report by Sarah Kopp.

The club made plans to honor recipients next month of the Brunswick

County NSDAR Good Citizen Awards, it also announced plans to participate in the dressing of a Centennial Doll for 1989, when the DAR celebrates 100 years of patriotic service, historical preservation and educational activities. The year 1907 in coastal North Carolina was chosen by Patsy Wood, chapter doll chairman, for the costume being planned.

Also a bronze NSDAR marker will be placed on the grave of Marie Foscue Rourk, who was a charter member of the chapter.

Members made plans to attend a genealogy workshop for eastern North Carolina at Rose Hill in November, the state conference in Pinehurst in March 1988 and the national convention in Washington, D.C., in April 1988.

The November chapter meeting will be held at Security Savings & Loan Association in Southport.
