More Than 1,000 Students Sign Up For Summer School

More than 1,000 students have signed up for summer school, according to Assistant Brunswick County Schools Superintendent P.R. Hankins.

Four weeks of remedial education classes in English, social studies and math only begin July 1, with classes meeting from 8 a.m. to 12 noon at three locations—Shallotte, South Brunswick and Leland Middle schools.

Brunswick County Board of Education members voted unanimously Monday night to set a six-hour employee workday, with the net result being a better rate of pay. "We want to get the best personnel we can for summer school and this would let us pay them more under the state schedule," he said, because the state will pay teachers the same for a six-hour day as for their usual 7½-hour day.

Since neighboring counties have adopted the six-hour summer school workday, he added, "staff would take a dim view" if Brunswick County's board did not.

Hankins also announced bus routings for the summer schools, as follows:
