Storytellers Weaving Their Art County Library Festival

Gather around and listen to a story . . . several stories, in fact, as the Brunswick County Library sponsors a Storytelling Festival this week in celebration of National Library Week.

Weather permitting, storytellers from different areas of the county will entertain listeners of all ages.

The first storytelling session was canceled Tuesday at the West Brunswick Branch Library because of rain. It may be rescheduled next

The second session is today, in Southport's Franklin Square Park; and the last will be Friday in the community park next to the Leland Branch Library. Three sessions are scheduled at each location: 10 a.m. to 10:55 a.m., 11 a.m. to 11:55 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 1:45 p.m. In the event of rain, the sessions will be canceled.

"I'm crossing my fingers about Thursday and Friday," Felecia Hardy, children's services coordinator said Tuesday morning.

She and Nancy Price, coordinator of adult services, organized the Storytellers scheduled to participate in the festival include some voices and faces already known to area residents: Judy Wolf and Tammie Mang, who teach four-year-olds at The Kid's Connection daycare; several students of West Brunswick High School English teacher Kay Williams; several home school students who have taken workshops with Ms. Hardy and, at the Leland festival, several senior citizens and North Brunswick High School faculty

Mary Allred of Wilmington, author of "Grandmother and The Poppyseed Children," will tell stories at both the Leland and Southport sites, and will autograph her books, copies of which will be available for those who don't already own them.

For more information call Ms. Hardy or Ms. Nancy Price, adult services coordinator, at Leland, 371-2978: West Brunswick, 754-6578; or the main library in Southport,

Brunswick County Band Offers Variety At 1st Spring Concert

Brunswick County Band presents its spring concert on Sunday, April 16, at the Brunswick Community College gymnasium in Southport, now known as the Center for The Performing Arts.

"We'll be performing a wide variety of music," said Donna Massingale, a band member from Holden Beach. Selections will range from classical to marches, Dixieland jazz and show

The concert begins at 3 p.m. at the gym, located at the intersection of Lord and Eighth Streets. Admission is $2, with children under eight admitted free. Tickets are available from Mrs. Massingale at 842-3233 after 6 p.m., or in Southport, from Sweetreat and New York Deli.

Paul Pittenger directs the band, which began with a looseknit group of musicians who performed for a Brunswick Players' musical. "After 'Oklahoma!' we stayed together," said Massingale.

Open to all county residents who

Variety will be the note when the the group now practices each Tuesday night at Trinity United Methodist Church in Southport.

In addition to Mrs. Massingale, members include Dick Conrad. Ralph Parker, Mary Campbell, Neil Watkins, Janet Porterfield, Bob Porterfield, Julia Smith, Vanessa Smith, Mary Wigfall, Ellen Dorsett, Jenny Rabon, Debbie Raker, Pam Bowman, Duwayne Grimm, Don Fenstermacker, Lou Sosler, Brad Williams, Arnie Hegler, Gene Eagle, Greg Walker, Grant Walker and John Humphrey from Southport, Ted Moss of Boiling Spring Lakes, Joseph Southern of Bald Head Island, George and Martha Tabor of Winnabow, Linda Dorman and Harry Soloway of Oak Island.

Mary Campbell is the group's

The non-profit group is available to perform for festivals, plays and other special events, said Mrs. Massingale. It also accepts monetary gifts or gifts of music, which are often made in read music and play an instrument, honor or in memory of someone.

'Showboat' Drama Schedules Two Festival Performances

Festival in Wilmington.

A 70-minute drama, "The Immortal Showboat" tells the history of the USS North Carolina battleship through voice, music, sound effects and lights. It is staged at the Battleship Memorial, located in Brunswick County on the west bank of the Cape Fear River near Wilm-

The show will be presented Friday and Saturday, April 14 and 15, at 9

Also scheduled at the memorial during the festival are two April 14 performances of patriotic songs by the Mount Olive College Singers, at 1:30 p.m. at the visitors center and on board the battleship at 2 p.m.

Constructed at the New York Navy Yard in 1937, the career of the "showboat" took her through participation in all 12 major naval campaigns in the Pacific Ocean during World War II.

Principal characters in the outdoor drama are two sailors from North

Two special presentations of "The Carolina and one from Texas. Immortal Showboat" will be Through the voices of Walter Abel, featured during the 1989 Azalea Alexander Scourby, 18 actors and such world leaders as President Franklin D. Roosevelt, President Harry S. Truman, Winston Churchill and Adolf Hilter, realism is brought to the "sound and light spectacular."

Spectators sit in a 1,000-seat grandstand across from the ship's bow. During the show more than 400 lights of varying color and intensity are used. Special effects include 20mm and 40mm antiaircraft gunfire, the blast and flame of large 5-inch and 16-inch guns; and a simulated torpedo explosion. Background music is performed by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Admission fees to the show are $3 for adults (age 12 and older) and $1.50 for children ages 6-11. Groups of 20 or more persons receive a 10 percent discount on admission fees.

The USS North Carolina Battleship Memorial will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. April 13 through 16. Admission fees to the memorial-the battleship- are $4 for adults and $2 for children, with 10 percent discounts for groups of 20 or more persons.

BCLC Receives First Award

Brunswick County Literacy Council Chairman Daphne Fournier of Holden Beach (right) accepts the first "Helping Hands" award, presented by Dr. Lee Langston on behalf of the Brunswick County Medical Society. Designed by local artist Wendy Ward Milazzo, the award was given in recognition of the council's efforts to combat illiteracy and poor self-esteem through its one-on-one tutoring program. The annual award was presented at the medical society's first Spring Charity Ball Friday at the N.C. National Guard Armory in Shallotte. Attended by approximately 175 people, with support from others, the benefit dance raised enough funds to buy the first video program for the Prescription for Excellence program to be implemented in the Brunswick County Schools. "We are eestatic," said Langston of the community support shown, "It demonstrates we can do things on an excellent basis." The date of the 1990 ball, which will also feature Bo Thorpe and His Orchestra, will be announced in the near future.

Steinem Keynote Speaker For Chadbourn Conference

HOMEOWNERS

INSURANCE

Call us for a quote on your homeowners,

754-5400

First Investors

FINANCIAL CORPORATION

VISIT US FOR LUNCH DAILY

Breakfast & Fruit Bar

OPEN 7 AM

Seafood Buffet

"All You Can Eat"

mobile home, or other insurance needs.

INCLUDES: 26- ITEM SALAD BAR & DESSERT

Large Steamed Shrimp, Fried Clam Strips, Stuff ed Deviled Crab, Fresh Fried Fish, Golden Fried

Shrimp, BBQ Chicken, Buttered Corn on the Cob, Onion Rings, Baked Potatoes, French

Fries, Homemade Hushpuppies, Fresh Cole

FRI & SAT NIGHTS

5 PM-9 PM

Gloria Steinem, writer and editorial consultant for Ms. interviewer, as well as columnist for Magazine, will speak May 5 at a 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. conference at Southeastern Community College.

The conference on "Empowering Rural Women" is intended to educate and increase the awareness of professionals who work with rural women in Southeastern North Carolina. Southeastern, Cape Fear, Fayetteville Technical, Sampson, Richmond and Robeson Community Colleges are the sponsors. The conference is partially funded by a grant from the N.C. Humanities Council.

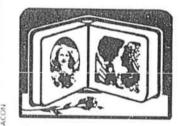

spokeswoman on issues of equality.

Other conference speakers include Mary Jo Bratton and Marie Farr of East Carolina University, Linda Flowers of N.C. Wesleyan college and Janice Kennedy-Sloan of the N.C. Department of Community Col-

Registration and lunch are $5, payable only in advance, with attendance limited to first 300 people to Steinem is an author, lecturer and register by the May 1 deadline. The fee should be sent to Helen Hilton, several magazines. She is known as a Southeastern Community College, P.O. Box 151, Whiteville, NC 28472. Checks should be payable to Southeastern Community college, marked for Gloria Steinem Conference.

Invitations • Decorating Accessories Flowers • Napkin Imprinting

The Perfect Wedding Begins With Us 754-9292 225 Smith Ave., Shallotte

Chorus Presents Musical Revue

The seventh and eighth grade chorus at Shallotte Middle School will present its spring concert, "American Pop," on Thursday April 13, at 7 p.m. in the school gym-

"American Pop" is a rock and roll musical revue which features the birth of rock, American Bandstand's "Rate a Record," the California folk sound, the versatile music of the '70s and today's sound.

Sixty students will sing and dance to the music of songs which made rock 'n' roll popular, said choral director Donna McLamb, and there will be several featured dancers and vocalists.

No admission will be charged.

Cooper To Appear In Drama

Gregory Cooper of Sunset Beach will appear in the University of North Carolina at Wilmington's dramatic production, "The Diviners," to be presented April 12 through 16 at the SRO Theatre on the UNC-W campus.

Cooper will portray the character Buddy Layman in the play by James Leonard Jr., which tells the story of a boy (Layman) and his special relationship with a reluctant preacher. The play is set in Indiana in the 1930s.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. on April 12 through 15, and 2:30 p.m. on April 16. Advance tickets may be purchased at the Thalian Center box office, Wilm-

"The Diviners" will be the last UNC-Wilmington production to be performed before the college's Department of Creative Arts Summer Festival, running June 1 through July 31 on the college campus.

SEPTEMBER 14 Night Cruise Local Air Departure Nights Accomodations in Waikiki... Prices start as low as

$1709 Per Person PRESENTATION: Thurs. April 13, 7:30 PM

in our office located at RESORT PLAZA, HWY 17 S. SHALLOTTE

A TASTE OF LIFESTYLES PAST IN THE OLD SOUTHERN TRADITION

Abbey Green Great House Restaurant and Bar

Seafood • Steaks • Southern Homecooked Meals $6.95 and up

One-half block west of Highway 17, Little River, SC 29566 (803)249-2389

Open 5 PM Until Mon.-Sat. • Casual attire welcome.

FREE MEMBERSHIP until June 1st at

WOLTAGE

HWY. 17, SHALLOTTE • 754-9642

HWY. 179. SEASIDE • 579-9777