Nine Students Enter ACT-SO Scholarship Competition

Nine black students from across Brunswick County vie Saturday for a $500 scholarship in the annual Martin Luther King ACT-SO competition, which starts at 7 p.m. at Bolivia Elementary School.

Willie Fullwood of Shallotte will serve as master of ceremonies. He is director of adult basic education and general education development programs at Brunswick Community College, where he is also the affirmative action officer. Fullwood also serves as a radio announcer for WDZD Radio Station.

ACT-SO is the acronym for Afro-Academic Cultural Technological Scientific Olympics, a program designed to encourage academic excellence among black youths.

Competing for a $500 scholarship and the opportunity to compete for a $1,000 national scholarship will be these teen-agers:

•Crystal Eagles, a 10th grade student at South Brunswick High School and daughter of Ms. Cheryl Stevenson, in dramatics;

•Stacey Woodard, an 11th grade student at West Brunswick High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Woodard, in vocal music;

•Ebony Grissett, a 10th grade student at West Brunswick High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norvin Grissett, in poetry;

•Marion Evans, a 10th grade student at South Brunswick High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evans, in dramatics;

•Andrena Evans, an 11th grade student at South Brunswick High School and the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Emanuel Evans, in vocal music;

•Stacey Hill, a 10th grade student at West Brunswick High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Johnson, in painting and sculpture;

•Vicky Randolph, a 10th grade student at South Brunswick High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Randolph, no category listed;

•Tania Butler, a senior at West Brunswick High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler, in dance and drawing; and

BCC Library Offers Authors

Brunswick Community College offers A Night of Brunswick County Authors Wednesday, April 25, in celebration of National Library Week.

During the 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. event at the BCC learning resource center, several published authors from Brunswick County will read from their works and speak on the process of having work published.

Writers scheduled to participate include Jean Stanley, Johnnie Holden and Dwarka Ramphal, said Sharon Smith, librarian.

With acceptances continuing to come in, she added, "We may have as many writers as can fill two hours at 10 minutes each."

Also, Willie Fullwood, director of BCC's literacy program, and Edna Magers, a recruiter for the program and a volunteer with the Brunswick County Literacy Council, will discuss efforts to increase adult literacy in the community.

For more information contact Ms. Smith at BCC.

Class Of '58 Plans Reunion

Bolivia High School's 1958 graduating class will hold its 32nd reunion Saturday, May 12, at the Brunswick County Shrine Club on Midway Road.

Spokesman Donald Willetts said a hospitality hour will begin at 6:30 p.m., followed by a rib eye steak dinner at 7:30 p.m.

The classes of 1957 and 1959 are invited to join in the event, he said.

For more information or to make reservations, interested former schoolmates are asked to contact Willetts at (919) 253-5294.

DO YOU RECOGNIZE THIS FORMER CHEERLEADER?

So now you turn 24, Never to be young anymore?! When you gave a cheer in this picture you see, Little did you know you'd see it again when you were one yr. older than 23... Not that I want to age you any more than you feel now It's just you need to realize that at "24" you're still at youth's door so be proud & take a bow. So don't get out your rocker or get upset over a few gray hairs, Because you're still young enough to catch a few stares. So give us a cheer, a split, and a little cart-wheel I know you wanted to keep your talents a secret, but I said I would make your birthday renowned and a deal is a deal! I've tried to do this with grace... Not just to be egg on your face! So be proud and loud and all together everybody give this girl a cheer on her day. "Give her a H-A-P-P-Y B-I-R-T-H-D-A-Y G-0-0 J-A-C-K-I-E-!" Love Always, Brenda Yes! It's Jackie Milliken "Age 24" Sunday, April 22, 1990
