27 Brunswick County Students Make UNC-W Dean's List

Twenty-seven students from Brunswick County have been named to the fall semester 1990 dean's list at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

They earned a grade point average of 3.5 or better while taking 12 to 14 hours of credit, or a GPA of 3.2 or better while taking 15 or more credit hours, with no grade less than a B.

They are as follows: Rahn Ellis Adams, Cheryl Lynn Evans, William Roger Hughes, Michael Dale McLamb and Vicky Ellen Wright, Shallotte; Mary Ann Prugel, Sunset Beach; Wanda Cheatham Feldt, Holden Beach; Donna McClanahan Long, Winnabow; Robert Lee Marlowe and Jennifer Renee Wescott, Bolivia; Shirley Rose Pait, Sandy Creek;

Also, Nona Batson, Baker, Sue Bordeaux Bollinger, Tina Renee Butler, Susan Garnette Guyton, Sheila Kay Klutz, Janey Lynn Sturtz, Carole Dutton Williams and Wendy Gay Williams, Leland; Carolyn Paule Busse, Village of Bald Head Island; and Kimberly Ann Garrett, Keenan Eric Jones, Sarah Lee Kirby, Nancy Shry Renn, Seth Aric Sjostrom and Kristel Michelle Wallin, Southport.

Makes Chancellor's List
Barbara Foehrkoeb of Shallotte has been named to the fall 1990 chancellor's list at USC Coastal Carolina College.

Chancellor's list students must earn a 4.0 grade point average and take at least 12 credit hours of coursework.

USC Coastal Carolina College is a four-year campus of the University of South Carolina and is located in Conway, S.C.

Kelly Reappointed
Dave Kelly of Southport, chairman of the Brunswick Community College Board of Trustees, has been reappointed to North Carolinians for Community Colleges.

The purpose of the group, which includes 58 civic and business leaders, is to build statewide support for the Commission on the Future of North Carolina's Community College System report, Gaining the Competitive Edge.

The Commission recommended that the General Assembly provide an additional $135 million annually to the community college system, to raise its funding to the national average. In the 1990-91 state budget community colleges receive only seven cents of every dollar the state spends on education.

Teachers Honored
West Brunswick High School has chosen Craig Morris of Shallotte and Cheri Skaggs of Sunset Beach as employees of the month for February.

Morris has been band director at WBHS and Waccamaw Elementary School for four years. The bands have played for community, athletic and school functions under his direction. Morris also helped organize WBHS's annual "Moo Doo Day." He is a member of the Shallotte Volunteer Rescue Squad and Camp United Methodist Church.

Ms. Skaggs teaches music education at WBHS and Waccamaw Elementary. She has directed the school chorus at the N.C. Oyster Festival at Seaside and on local television appearances. She attends Living Faith Church, where she sings and plays the saxophone.

Jenrette Graduates
Vernessa A. Jenrette of Shallotte recently graduated from Fayetteville State University at the university's first winter commencement, held Dec. 18, 1990.

Yeager Selected
Greg Yeager, son of George and Audrey Yeager of Ash, has been named band person of the week for the West Brunswick High School Band.

A junior who plays trumpet, Yeager was chosen for setting a superb example in the band.

Earns UNC-CH Degree
Steven Joseph Greenwood of Route 2, Supply, has been awarded a bachelor of arts degree in English from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

He completed requirements during the fall 1990 semester and was recognized at a Dec. 9 program in Memorial Hall.

UNC-CH Lists Seven
Seven Brunswick County students have attained the fall semester 1990 dean's list at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

They are Kelly Leanne Ward, Shallotte; Becky Nicole King, Ash; Sam Gus Stathos, Calabash; Jennifer Ruth Roberts and Stefany Kendra Batson, Leland; and Deborah Lynn Formyduval and Freeman Edward Kirby Jr., Southport.

To earn a place on the list, students must attain a 3.2 grade point average on a 4.0 scale while taking 15 or more letter grade credit hours, or a 3.5 average while taking at least 12 letter grade hours, with no grade below a C.

Driver Selected
Cynthia Marlowe of Ash has been selected as January bus driver of the month at West Brunswick High School.

Ms. Marlowe drives school bus No. 33 in the Ash community. She was chosen for the honor based on her consideration for students and on the job performance.

She is a 1976 graduate of WBHS and is married to John A. Marlowe. Their son, Jerome, is a junior at WBHS and plays on the varsity basketball team. She is a member of Little Trong Missionary Baptist Church.

Eighteen Students Nominated To Attend Governor's School

Brunswick County Schools have nominated 18 students to attend Governor's School this summer—six in academic areas and 12 in the arts, Mary Wolf, pupil-personnel services director.

Those selected will participate in a state-sponsored, six-week residential study program for outstanding academically gifted students at either Salem College or St. Andrews College.

Winners will be notified in April. At least two Brunswick County students, and possibly more, will be invited to attend a Governor's School. In addition to exploring contemporary issues in their area of concentration, students also participate in studies of philosophy, epistemology, ethics and aesthetics, and self in society.

Students could be nominated in any of 11 areas of academics or the performing arts. Statewide, 800 rising high school juniors and seniors will be chosen for the program.

All nominees are required to meet minimum eligibility requirements, garnering a minimum number of points based on academic performance and performance on standardized tests. Also, students nominated in the performing arts must audition at the state level. Brunswick County was allowed to nominate six students in academic areas and 12 in the performing arts.

The county nominees were selected from among 55 students

From North Brunswick High the nominees are Charlie Edward Speight, sophomore, and Malik James Flamer, junior, math; and Margaret Christina Dees, sophomore, instrumental music.

From South Brunswick the nominees are Ronald Brown II, sophomore, science; Kathryn Smith, junior, social studies; Terri Smith, junior, science; Karen Blackmon,

Leland Town Board Hires First Clerk

Leland Town Council has hired its first paid employee.

Joyce Bragg, deputy clerk for New Hanover County, has been chosen to serve as Leland's first paid clerk.

On Feb. 19 Mrs. Bragg will replace Dean Roberts, who is serving as the town's unpaid volunteer clerk. Jane Crowder will continue as Leland's unpaid part-time deputy clerk.

Mrs. Bragg is a director of the N.C. Association of County Clerks and past president of the local chapter of Professional Secretaries International.

She has worked for New Hanover County for more than nine years and will continue as deputy clerk on a part-time basis until July 1, when the Leland position will become a full-time job.

Mayor Russell Baldwin said Leland is fortunate to find someone with Mrs. Bragg's experience for the town's first paid employee. "We had 18 outstanding applicants," Baldwin said. "Mrs. Bragg's experience gave her the edge."
