PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Endorsed Resolution Of Support For Troops

James W. Smith, a commissioner of the Employment Security Commission of North Carolina, endorsed a resolution of support for U.S. military forces in the Persian Gulf at a meeting Feb. 7 in Raleigh.

Smith is owner and operator of Ducthman Creek Acres Real Estate Co. and lives in Southport. He is also an executive officer of Local 1838 of the International Longshoreman's Association, a master Mason and a member of the Southport Historical Society.

The resolution commends the soldiers "for their service on behalf of all citizens of the free world."

Padgett Gets Mention
North Brunswick High School student Ronald Padgett received an honorable mention at the presentation of the Scholastic Art Awards for Eastern North Carolina Feb. 3 at Barton College in Wilson.

Padgett is a student of Terry Rosenfelder at North Brunswick. The awards program is for high school students in 46 counties in eastern North Carolina.

Reeves On List

Peggy Dennis Reeves of Gause Landing has been named to the dean's list for the fall semester at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

She attained a 4.0 average, or all A's, on coursework completed during the term.

Karriker Named

Locke Anderson Karriker, a senior at South Brunswick High School, has been named a semifinalist in the 1990-91 Merit Awards Program scholarship at North Carolina State University.

Karriker is one of 160 high school seniors across the state that will participate in scholarship interviews at the Raleigh campus Feb. 16.

He is the son of Thomas Eugene and Mary Anne Karriker of Route 1, Bolivia.

Eighty finalists will receive $1,000 scholarships for their freshman and sophomore year at NCSU. Karriker is also eligible for the John Tyler Caldwell Alumni Scholarship which is valued at $3,500 for in-state students and is renewable for up to four years.

Attends Seminar

Twenty-five Brunswick Community College faculty and staff members attended a "Becoming a One-Minute Manager" seminar last week sponsored by the N.C. Department of Community Colleges Professional Program Development Services.

The seminar was designed to help academic administrators and faculty leaders adapt the one-minute manager approach to goal setting, supervising faculty and staff and managing problems.

The BCC staff participated in self-assessment of leadership skills and problems and discussed how to eliminate identified problems.

Band Cites Carter

Chris Carter, a sophomore who plays the alto saxophone, has been named band member of the week at West Brunswick High School because of the example he sets through performance and attitude, said spokesman Cathryn Mintz.

Carter is the son of Robert and Julie Carter of Grissettown.

Take Your Sweetheart Dancing

Still searching for the just-right way to celebrate Valentine's Day with your sweetheart?

It's not too late to purchase tickets for the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce Valentine's Dance Saturday. Featuring music by Crossroads, the dance will be held from 8 p.m. to midnight at the Jones-Byrd Clubhouse, Sea Trail Plantation.

Cost is $20 per person, which includes light hors d'oeuvres and an 11 p.m. buffet-style breakfast. A cash bar is planned at the semi-formal event.

Couples must be present to win a variety of donated prizes, including a mid-week vacation for two at a couples resort in the Pocono Mountains of northeastern Pennsylvania.

Tickets are available from the chamber of commerce office in Shallotte.

The Jones-Byrd Clubhouse is located on Old Georgetown Road near Sunset Beach.

Tuesday Fair Looks At Women's Health

Women can learn more about health and health care at the Women's Health Fair Tuesday, Feb. 19, from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. at Bolivia Elementary School.

The event is co-sponsored by the Brunswick County Health Department and the Brunswick County Schools.

Rita Hatcher, health educator with the county health department, said topics to be covered will include mammograms, alcohol and drugs, nutrition, exercise, health and safety, blood pressure and heart disease.
