Wilson, Taylor Marry In Southport

Nancy Angela Wilson and Olin Thomas Taylor Jr. were married Feb. 16 at 5 p.m. in Trinity United Methodist Church, Southport.

The Rev. P.D. Midgett performed the double-ring ceremony. Co-directors were Laura Roberts of Charlotte and Dot Kelly of Yaupon Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larry Wilson of Southport. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Taylor of Monroe.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of ivory taffeta. The long-sleeved bodice was adorned with Venise lace and accented with pearls and iridescent sequins. The skirt held a rounded peplum and chapel train, which was also adorned with Venise lace accented with pearls and iridescent sequins.

The bride chose a cathedral-length veil of silk illusion with a band of pearls and iridescent beads, detailed with maline leave sprays and lily of the valley framing her face.

She carried a cascading bouquet of Royal Delight roses, roseria astromeria, white freesia, stephanotis and ivory lace ribbons.

The bride chose her sister, Robin Wilson of Southport, as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Clark of Charlotte, Kimberly Jernigan of Middletown, Conn., and Lesa Caster of Southport. Kellan Roberts of Charlotte was a junior bridesmaid. Robin Harris and Rebecca Crews, both of Southport, were honorary bridesmaids.

Attendants wore ruby red velvet two-piece suits created by Diane Justice of Southport with floor-length straight skirts. The jackets, fastened with pearl drop buttons, had peplums adorned with ivory lace. They carried bouquets of Rubeen lilies, miniature carnations, roseria astromeria and tree ferns tied with ivory lace ribbons.

Brittany Chestnut of Little River, S.C., served as flower girl. She was attired in a long-sleeved tea-length gown with a bodice of ruby red velvet and full skirt of ivory taffeta overlaid with ivory lace.

She carried an ivory lace basket with roseria astromeria, babies' breath and miniature carnations.

Brian Pierce of Ash was ring bearer.

...Nancy Angela Wilson

The groom's father, Pete Taylor, served as best man. Groomsmen were Todd Clark and Allen Roberts, both of Charlotte, and Walter Spencer of Southport.

Music was presented by Pam Cumbee, pianist; Lori Wagoner, violinist; with vocals by Ashley Summerlin.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Southport Community Building. Sylvia Butterworth of Southport greeted guests and Michelle Gurganus of Calabash presided at the guest register. Patsy Price of Calabash served punch and Terri Garrison of Charlotte served cake. Starlite Entertainment of Wilmington provided music.

Following a honeymoon trip to Orlando, Fla., the newlyweds will reside in Southport.

The bride is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and is employed by United Carolina Bank in Southport.

The groom is a graduate of South Brunswick High School and is employed at the CP&L biology lab.

Pre-Wedding Activities

Prior to the wedding the groom's parents entertained the wedding party and out of town guests at the Sandfiddler Restaurant in Southport.

The bride was honored by two wedding showers. One in Charlotte was hosted by the groom's family. The other, in Southport, was hosted by her mother's family.

Arts Festival Reset To Friday, March 8

The fifth annual Black Arts Festival has been rescheduled from Feb. 15 to Friday, March 8, at 7:30 p.m. at Brunswick Community College (BCC).

The program was canceled due to inclement weather in counties where performers were traveling from.

The festival will feature dramatic, musical and dance. The featured guest artist will be Pamela Reid, Visiting Artist at Southeastern Community College and former BCC Visiting Artist and founder of the festival.

Festival Coordinator Joyce Hewett said that all of the artists originally slated to participate will be performing on March 8.

The festival, which will be held in BCC's Student Center, is sponsored by the college and the Brunswick Arts Council.

Wedding Announced

Alton and Doris Walters of Rae-ford have announced the marriage of their daughter, Melissa Kay Walters, to James Earl Clemmons Jr.

Clemmons is the son of James and Jerry Clemmons of Supply.

Their wedding took place Friday, Feb. 8, in Conway, S.C.

Did you know that you're our hero? You're the wind beneath our wings, son. We love you, Mom & Dad.

Happy 16th Birthday to a real prince of a guy!

Happy Birthday Debra

Love Mickey, Bobby, Charles & David
