

Scholarships Highlight Awards Day At South Brunswick High

BY SUSAN USHER
 South Brunswick High School seniors have been offered more than $462,000 in scholarships this year, only one type of recognition noted during the school's annual awards day program last week.

Awards were presented last Wednesday morning in the multipurpose room and transmitted live to students in their classrooms via Cougar Entertainment TV, the student television production class.

Guidance Counselor Marsha Cochran said several recent announcements, including a football grant-in-aid to Carl Parker from William and Mary College in Virginia, had boosted the financial aid level from its previous $330,000 level.

Earnest Wearren of Southport has the choice of accepting either an Air Force ROTC scholarship worth $8,000 a year at Fayetteville State University or an appointment to the U.S. Air Force Academy, worth approximately $100,000.
