I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to the 92 good Republicans who participated in the Oak Island Precinct II organizational elections on May 14, 1991. It is good to see the interest expressed in our election process.

Thank you one and all for your support, and I will be at your service for the next two years as your precinct chairperson.

I extend a special thanks to the following persons for a job well done in organizing this election: Mr. James Payne, Chairman of the Brunswick County Republican Party who appointed the committee to conduct the election; Mr. Marty Cooke, County Party Secretary; Mr. Phil Norris, County Party Treasurer; and Mr. Don Willetts, Member at Large. All did their part to ensure an efficient, non-partisan election.
