CEDAR GROVE AREA NEWS

Guest Minister Was Inspiring

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT

The Rev. Dwight Bryant gave the keynote sermon at the choir anniversary program at Little Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in Supply Sunday, June 2.

HEWETT

Speaking from Psalm 137, he related the Scripture to the Lord's presence with U.S. troops during two recent operations in the Middle East, Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

He is to return to Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church Sunday, June 23, to serve as keynote speaker on a 4 p.m. program. The public is invited.

Dwight is the latest in a series of evangelists to visit locally.

It seems area adults thrive on such inspiration to help them cope with the pitfalls and slick mountainsides of life. I think these positive messages also help deter crime and disorder in society as well as poverty.

Dwight is the son of Harvey and Earnestine Bryant. His grandmother was the late Mattie Sophia Reaves Bryant.

Support Pays Off

Ocean View Association has built a reputation of supporting its children.

The union of churches seems to feel that investing in the future of these youngsters pays off in helping develop well-rounded citizens.

One of the young people who has benefited from that nurturing and for whom the association has great expectations is Perty Deon Grissett, son of Sonny and Ruby Mae Bryant of Pleasant Hill Church.

As reported earlier in this paper, the talented rising West Brunswick High School junior has been invited to attend the N.C. School of Science and Mathematics.

In Ocean View Association Perty has been a faithful Bible Institute student since he was Cradle Roll age.

Birthday Greetings

Happy birthday to James, Leither, Carol and Earnest Hewett; Mertha Bryant; Gertrude Gore; Perry Lee Hewett; Cynthia Mitchell; Rosiland Bryant; Alease Johnson; Anthony Bryant; Tania Hewett; and Alonza Hewett.

Tune In

Listen Thursdays at 3 p.m. and Saturdays at 10:15 a.m. for the Cedar Grove Area News. On Sunday evenings listen for the Moments of Inspiration gospel music ministry. Both programs air on WVCB Radio in Shallotte.

Weekly Scripture

This week's Scripture comes from 1 John 4, "And this commandment have we, that he who loveth the Father loveth his brother also."

RELIGIOUS BRIEFS

Children's Mission Coming To Ocean Isle Beach

Children's Sand and Surf Mission (CSSM) will offer its program for elementary school age children July 8-12 at Ocean Isle Beach.

Lorna Morris of Little River, S.C., said the program will offer songs, skits, puppets, Bible stories and other activities from 10 a.m. to 12 noon Monday through Friday near the Ocean Isle Beach Pier. The site will be marked by a red CSSM banner. Children ages 5 through 12 are welcome, along with their parents.

The program is run by Children's Ministries, a national organization headquartered in Pittsburgh, Pa. The program is free, with preregistration not required.

A similar two-week children's mission is planned at Cherry Grove Beach, Cherry Grove, S.C., June 24-July 5.

Witness In Concert

Witness, a Christian music group comprised of selected college students, will appear in concert at Southport Baptist Church Saturday, June 15, at 7:30 p.m.

The group is sponsored by the State Baptist Convention's Evangelism Department.

Supply Plans VBS

Vacation Bible School begins June 17 at Supply Baptist Church and continues through June 21 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon each day.

Classes will be offered for ages birth through 17, said spokesman Mackie Barefoot.

Commencement will be held June 23 at 6:30 p.m.

Troupe Offers HI-TOPS'

Master Design, a touring youth group, will present the dramatic musical HI-TOPS Monday, June 17, at 7 p.m. at Little River United Methodist Church, Little River, S.C.

This is the third year of touring the Southeastern United States for the group of middle and high school age students from Community United Methodist Church in Casselberry, Fla.

The program is designed to bring a message to all ages, as audience members identify with different characters and the situations in which they find themselves.

More information is available by contacting the church at 1-803-249-2329.

Birthday Service Set

The congregation of Crystal Spring Missionary Baptist Church in Northwest Community, Leland, invites the public to join in a combined appreciation / 75th birthday service for their pastor, the Rev. E.H. Stevenson, June 16.

Lonnie Adams, program chairperson, said morning worship will begin at 11:30 a.m., followed by dinner at 1:30 p.m. and the appreciation and birthday services at 3:30 p.m.

Guest leaders for the afternoon service will be the Rev. Sam Flowers and the choir and congregation of First Baptist Church in Elizabethtown.

Installation Planned

The Rev. Don R. Saffrit, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Shallotte, will be installed June 16 at 10 a.m. by the Rev. Maria Copeland.

Copeland is the assistant to the bishop of the North Carolina Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America. She will also give the sermon that day.

Seaside Adds Service

Seaside United Methodist Church is adding a second worship service to its Sunday schedule starting Sunday, June 16.

Worship service and Sunday School for all ages begins at 9 a.m., followed by a fellowship period from 10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. and the second service at 10:30 a.m.

The Rev. Camille Yorkey Edwards is pastor of the congregation, which meets in a building on N.C. 179 just east of the Ocean Isle Beach causeway.

Remer At Chapel

The Rev. Doug Remer, an Episcopal minister from Atlanta, Ga., is the pastor of the week at The Holden Beach Chapel.

He will deliver the message Sunday, June 16, at the interdenominational chapel on Rothschild Street, Holden Beach.

Worship service begins at 11 a.m., preceded by Sunday School at 10 a.m.

This is the chapel's 31st season.

VBS Begins Monday

Vacation Bible School for all ages begins Monday, June 17, and continues through Friday, June 21, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at First Baptist Church of Shallotte.

Help in arranging transportation for children without rides is available by calling the parsonage, 754-4959, or Lena Hawes, 754-4858, said spokesman William Manning.

Commencement will be held Sunday, June 23, at 7 p.m.
