Family Gathers At Holden Beach

For the third consecutive year, the Decker family is holding its family reunion at Holden Beach.

The family of the late Mary and Jim Decker of Gastonia includes 10 daughters and a son.

Their family members at the reunion range in age from 3 to 89. They will be visiting the area for periods ranging from a few days to several weeks from Gastonia; High Point; Rock Hill, S.C.; St. Louis; Tulsa and Atlanta; as well as Alabama; Illinois and New Jersey.

Approximately 45 people are attending this year's reunion, said Mae Decker Hampson of Trenton, N.J., and Sea Breeze Estates.

Howard, Gilley Wed At Calvary

Gina Cheryl Howard and Stephen Michael Gilley were married Saturday, June 15, at 4 p.m. in Calvary Baptist Church, Shallotte.

The Rev. John E. Landers performed the double ring ceremony. Music was provided by soloist Gigi Gore, who sang Wither Thou Goest, One Hand One Heart and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Elwood Howard of Supply and a student at the Campbell University School of Pharmacy.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson Gilley of Rocky Mount. He is a 1991 graduate of Campbell University and is employed with World Homes Inc. in Rocky Mount.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory satin bridal gown featuring a portrait collar of pleated satin with beaded Alencon lace and a heavily-beaded Alencon lace fitted bodice that extended into the full-length sheath skirt. It featured a detachable semi-cathedral train with double-pleated bow at back waist accented with lace motifs and edged in Alencon lace.

Her headpiece was a halo of pearl flowers and sequin leaf design accented with crystals. A pouf with scattered pearls topped the fingertip length, rolled-edge veil of bridal illusion.

Julie Benton was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Debra Pearson, Lorrie Yeary and Monica Howard. Melissa Howard was the flower girl.

Bridesmaids and the flower girl wore amethyst satin gowns with fitted bodice and sabrina necklines dropping to a deep V in the back, accented with pearl appliques on the shoulders and pearl strands to mid-back. The dresses also featured mid-length, folded drape sleeves and a fitted, drop waistline with a peplum that extended back to the length of the long sheath skirt.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of calla lilies, roses and stephanotis. Attendants carried a single calla lily.

The groom chose his father as best man. Ushers were Ken Howard and Raymond Howard, both of Supply, and Thomas Tanner and Will Jerrone, both of Rocky Mount. Justin Howard was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The couple will reside in Rocky Mount following a honeymoon trip to the Cayman Islands.
