Sea Trail Foursome Wins Best Ball With 60

Eva Baham, Karen Acton, Pam Hayes and Betty Street shot net 60 on the front nine to finish first in the Sea Trail Ladies Golf Association nine-hole two best ball event last Wednesday.

Second place on the front nine went to the foursome of Joan Llewellyn, Marge Bach, Nancy Williams and Jerri Moore with net 64. Golfers competed on the Byrd course.

Two teams tied for first place on the back nine. Lois Curry, Gayle Schadle, Nancy Williams and Mary Morris shot 67 to tie Dinah Gore, Pat Gardner, Jill Wilson and Marie Munn.

Brierwood Men

Joe Reiter, Paul Keeley, Norm Soucie and Matt Monaghan fired an even-par 144 to win the Brierwood Men's Golf Association tournament last Thursday.

Teams counted the low gross and low net balls on each hole. Finishing second with 150 was the foursome of Don Redding, Jim Roach, Al Hierman and Gene Cordisco.

On Jan. 25, the team of John

Martocci, Jerry Lula and Bill Pingo won the Brierwood two best ball event with a 130. They used a blind draw for their fourth score.

Also using a blind draw and finishing second was the team of Dave Harper, John Cowie and Gene Cordisco. They fired a 12-under-par 132.

Two teams tied for third. Bill Goldsberry, Joe Reiter, Emile Vrydaghs and Jerry Smith shot 133 to tie Don Redding, Jim Crosby and Bob Wareheim.

Carolina Shores Ladies

Joan Sullivan, Alice Abbene,

May Robertson and Kathy Deming (blind draw) shot 143 to win the Carolina Shores Ladies Golf Association tournament last Thursday.

Teams counted the two best nets of the foursome. Finishing three shots back in second place was the team of Ginnie Derrickson, Barb Brooks, Kathy Deming and Jane Mahneke.

Placing third with a 147 was the foursome of Sue Greiner, Gerry Burdick, Jackie Distler and Helen Marsh. Betty Goodwin and Derrickson tied for low putts with 30 each.

Birdies were carded by Joan O'Neill and Dottie Meader at the eighth hole and Bianche Johnson at the 16th. Making chip-ins were Ginny Dorshimer at the seventh hole, Derrickson at the 12th and Isobel Sleight at the 14th.

Lockwood Shootout

Steve Carter and Butch Wells finished at plus five points to win the weekly "Shootout" last Wednesday at Lockwood Golf Links.

Finishing second with plus 2 1/2 points was the twosome of Fred McGee and Bill Searle. Charles Hyland was the individual winner with plus 4 1/2 points.

Lockwood holds the "Shootout" every Wednesday. The format is a blind draw of two-man teams. Each player is assigned a point quota based on handicap. The team that exceeds its quota by the most points wins.

Six points are awarded for eagle, four for birdie, two for par, one for bogey and 1/2 for double bogey. Golfers can enter by calling the pro shop at 842-5666.

Brick Landing

Martha Cullen and June Beck shot net 150 to win the Brick Landing Ladies Golf Association blind partners event last Thursday.

Finishing four shots back in second place was the twosome of Marie Barry and Rosemary Dobson.

Debbie Mason had a chip-in for birdie at the second hole. Other chip-ins were recorded by Betty Bonniol at the second hole and Dobson at the 16th.

Carding birdies were Peggy Campana at the 14th and Cullen at the 17th. Beck had low putts for the day with 33, and Cullen was second with 34.

Sea Trail Men

The team of Wayne Ruff, Bob Delaney, Al Cambria and Dale Stanton shot 148 to win the Sea Trail Men's Golf Association event last Tuesday.

Playing the Byrd course, teams counted one gross ball and one net ball on each hole.

Second place went to the foursome of Ron Schadle, Bill Kushner, Bud Tunt and Bill Jones with 150.

John Murphy, Gene Williams, Bill Burkart and Howard Van Dusen combined for a 151 and finished third. Fourth with 154 was the team of Bob Graham, Bob Manfred, Tunt and Augie Douglass.

Closest-to-the-pin winners were Al Consalvi at the second hole, Williams at the seventh and Ruff at 16.

Calabash Veterans

The team of Dick Mee, Clyde Schramm, Bill Johnson and Bill Flynn fired a 187 to win the Calabash Veterans Golf Association tournament last Friday at Eastport.

Teams counted the three low net balls on each hole. Finishing second with 194 was the team of Dick Ringer, Bob Greenwood and J.J. Quigley. They used a blind draw for their fourth score.

Larry Bollinger, Charlie Weber, Bob Phillips and Jim Reese placed third with a score of 200. Shooting 201 and finishing fourth was the team of Bill Werner, Bob Herre and Art McGinn.
