16-Year-Old NBHS Student Pleads Guilty In Pencil Stabbing

A 16-year old North Brunswick High School student was given a 30day suspended jail sentence last week after admitting in Brunswick County District Court that she stabbed another girl in the eye with a pencil.

Veronica Richardson of Southern Boulevard, Route 1, Winnabow, pleaded guilty Thursday to a charge of simple assault.

As conditions of her suspended sentence, Richardson was ordered to pay the costs of court, $100 in attorney fees and $67 restitution to her victim. She was put on supervised probation for two years and ordered not to possess a weapon or to assault or have any contact with the prosecuting witness during that period.

Richardson had been charged with assault inflicting serious injury after she allegedly attacked De-Angela Cobb of School House Road, Leland, last Nov. 12 "by stabbing her in the corner of her right eye with a pencil, thereby inflicting serious injury requiring medical treatment," according to the arrest warrant.

There were three days of district court last week, presided over by Judge D. Jack Hooks Tuesday, Judge Jerry A. Jolly Wednesday and Judge Napoleon B. Barefoot Jr. Thursday. Assistant District Attorncy Ola Lewis prosecuted cases for the state.
