GUEST SPEAKER:

James D. Smith, C.P.M.

James (Jim) Smith is a Certified Purchasing Manager employed as a purchasing agent with a 9 billion dollar pharmaceutical company in Durham, N.C.

Jim is a native of Asheville. He attended Western Carolina University and received a BS Degree in Business Management from Charleston Southern University, S.C. His business activities over the past twenty years have been in a manufacturing environment, primarily in the purchasing field. Four years as a personnel manager at ITT Telecom gave him a good understanding of interpersonal relationships as he assisted in a 1200 employee lay off and then was unemployed himself. Jim will share how God was so real during that time.

Jim has served five years as chapter president of the Raleigh chapter, several years as a Field Representative and currently is National Director for North Carolina FGBMFI.

He and his wife, Wilma, have been married 29 years. They have a daughter Willena and a son Bryan, both married. Their most recent joy is their grandson, Parker, who is 9 months old.

Jim and his family put God first and God has blessed them in so many ways which Jim wishes to share with you.

The Full Gospel Businessmen warmly invite you to meet and hear this outstanding Businessman's Testimony. We are excited to have our National Director for N.C., Jim Smith as our speaker. Ladies invited.
