'Old Baldy' Reopens To Public

"Old Baldy," the oldest lighthouse in North Carolina, marked its 176th birthday in April with the reopening of its 108 newly renovated steps to the top.

The 110-foot historic landmark is located on Bald Head Island, accessible by a 20-minute passenger ferry from Southport. Old Baldy, with its distinctive octagonal shape and off-centered lantern, is a short walk from the ferry landing.

The lighthouse is open daily from sunrise to sunset. From the top, there is a 10-mile panoramic view of the area. Admission is free; cost of the ferry ride is $15 per person, round-trip.

Old Baldy was built in 1817 as a beacon for vessels crossing the Cape Fear Bar and navigating the river channel. In 1861, after the start of the Civil War, it was closed. Later it operated as an interim light and served as a radio beacon during World War II.

The lighthouse was decommissioned in 1935 and replaced by the Cape Fear Lighthouse, located closer to the hazardous Frying Pan Shoals, and later by the automated Oak Island Lighthouse.

In 1985, a committee formed the Old Baldy Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to restoring and preserving the structure. In 1990, Old Baldy underwent an extensive exterior renovation, and, in 1991, a fundraising campaign was launched for the interior restoration.

The "Steps to the Top" program raised funds by making the 108 steps, five landings and lantern available for "adoption." For a $1,000 donation, contributors could adopt a step; for $2,500 a landing; and for $5,000 the lantern copper structure housing the lighting mechanism.

According to Donna Ray, president of the Old Baldy Foundation, the names of all contributors will be placed on a bronze plaque permanently located at the base of Old Baldy.

Extra Low Prices and Great Customer Service At Food Lion

Our goals at Food Lion are Extra Low Prices and Great Customer Service. To help make sure you receive great customer service at Food Lion, we are offering two new guarantees. They are our scan guarantee and parcel pick-up guarantee. SCAN GUARANTEE Each Food Lion store uses scanners to help speed you through check-out. The use of scanning reduces labor costs and helps Food Lion keep prices extra low. Scanners are more accurate than the traditional method of a cashier entering the price of each item. However, if you are charged a higher price for the item than the price on the shelf tag for that item, you get one item free. (excluding alcohol and tobacco) PARCEL PICK-UP GUARANTEE Many years ago, Food Lion devised a way to more efficiently load your groceries into your car. We call it Parcel Pick-Up. With parcel pick-up, you simply bring your car to the front of the store. Within 30 seconds, one of our friendly store personnel will be available to place the groceries into your car. If you do not receive attention within 30 seconds, Food Lion will give a $2 Food Lion gift certificate.
