Calabash VFW Post To Host Last Covered Dish Dinner Till September

Veterans of Foreign Wars members and auxiliarists from Post 7288 in Calabash hosted the 5th District meeting at the post on Sunday, April 25.

The meeting ended with a dinner prepared by the auxiliarists. Mary Benes was awarded a certificate for the post from the district publicity person. Mary Smith received a corsage of poppies for good public relations efforts.

On Saturday, May 15, the post will host its last covered dish dinner until September.

The next meeting will be held May 17 at the post. Officers will meet at 6:30 p.m.; the regular meeting begins at 7:30.

May 23 will be installation day for new officers.

Beachcombers To Meet

The Beachcombers Extension Homemakers Club will meet Wednesday, May 12, at 10 a.m. at Bonaparte Retreat, Calabash.

Members will hear a report on the recent Heritage Skills Workshop in Fayetteville. There will be a display of items members learned to make at the workshop.

Final plans will be made for International Day on the Netherlands to be held May 22 at Town Creek Community Building. New members are welcome.

For more information, call president Jean Mearns at 579-2146.

Calabash AARP To Meet

Calabash AARP Chapter No. 3640 will meet today (Thursday) at Calabash Fire Station on Persimmon Road, Calabash, at 7 p.m.

Henry Gehander, a noted tenor, will present a variety of programs, accompanied by Ruth Daniels.

Refreshments will follow the program, said publicity chairman Tony Santino, and guests are welcome.

Final Luncheon

The Brunswick Ladies Club will hold its final luncheon meeting of the season Monday, May 10, at 12:30 p.m. at The Round Table at St. James Plantation, Southport.

The meeting will follow a social gathering starting at 11:30 a.m., according to spokesperson Helen B. Bangs.

Breakfast Planned

The Calabash Elks Ladies Auxiliary will sponsor a pancake breakfast Saturday, May 15, from 8 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. at the lodge.

The auxiliary will serve pancakes, sausage, coffee, tea, milk and juice. The cost will be $3 per person. There will be no charge for children under 6.

Proceeds will be used for the "Send A Boy To Camp" program. The lodge is located at 937 Carter Drive in Calabash.

Art Association Meeting

The Waterway Art Association will meet Wednesday, May 19, at 1:30 p.m. at the Sunset Beach fire station.

The morning session has been canceled this month. The May 31 art show will be the main topic of discussion at the business meeting.

Members and prospective members are invited. For information, call Margaret Noland at 579-1405.

Society To Meet

The Brunswick County Historical Society will meet Monday, May 10, at 7:30 at St. James the Fisherman Episcopal Church in Shallotte.

Speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Richard W. Warner Jr., whose topic will be the history of the Episcopal church in Brunswick County.

Membership in the historical society is open to anyone with an interest in local history. Dues are $10 per year and are payable at the meeting or may be mailed to the Brunswick County Historical Society, P.O. Box 874, Shallotte NC 28462.

Educator To Speak

Jan Reichenbach, health educator with the Brunswick County Health Department, will speak at the May 10 meeting of the Holden Beach Senior Citizens.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. Monday at the Lockwood Folly Community Building on Stanbury Road.

Reichenbach will speak on coping with caregiving and how to avoid stress.

All senior citizens of the Holden Beach area are welcome, said spokesman Ann Robinson.

Scholarship Awarded

Rhonda Rabon (left) of Holden Beach is this year's recipient of a $350 scholarship from the South Brunswick Islands Woman's Club, presented by club president Donna Trest. Rabon, an honor student in her final quarter of BCC's cosmetology program, will use the money to either purchase equipment or further her education in the department's instructor training program. The scholarship is given annually to a female honor student age 40 or older.

Folk Festival Is Set May 15

The Museum of the Cape Fear will sponsor the second annual Cape Fear Folk Festival on May 15 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

The festival will highlight crafts, skills, customs and music of the 18th and 19th centuries. Skills and household customs to be demonstrated include blacksmithing, woodworking, rope-making, basketweaving, spinning, soap-making and pressing apples to make cider. A lace maker and silhouette maker will be selling their crafts.

Approximately 20 crafts from all over the state will set up on the grounds of Arsenal Park. Along with crafters demonstrating throughout the day, live music will be performed.

A concert by Bill Mansfield will take place at 11 a.m. David DiGiuseppe will perform at 1 p.m. at 3 p.m., the Fayetteville Black Civic Chorus will sing spirituals.

The festival is free. In case of rain, it will be held Sunday, May 16, from 1-5 p.m.

The museum is at 801 Arsenal Avenue in Fayetteville.
