Thomas Wins Brick Landing Women's Club Championship

Millie Thomas was crowned the winner after shooting the low gross in the recently-completed Brick Landing Women's Golf Association club championship tournament.

Low net winners in the 36-hole event were Alice Grossman in the first flight and Martha Cullen in the second flight.

In more recent tournament action at Brick Landing, Cullen led the first flight last Thursday with gross 91. Peg Campana fired the low net of 68, and Thomas had low putts.

Pat Taylor shot 98 for low gross in the second flight. Sue Houston had the low net with 69, and Marie Barry had low putts.

In the third flight, winners were Edna Hollowell with gross 108 and Betty Bonniol with net 69. Terry Ehlers had low putts.

Barry birdied the 12th hole and Grossman birdied the 15th.

Sea Trail Ladies

The Sea Trail Ladies Golf Association held a nine-hole, two best ball of foursome event last Tuesday on the Byrd course.

Winning the front nine with a 61 was the team of Eva Baham, Jane Bye, Lois Pike and Marge Gallop.

Finishing second on the front nine was the foursome of Joan Llewellyn, Barbara Pointer, Marge Stokes and Carol Peters with 63.

On the back nine, Pat Gardner, Martha Murphy, Betty Geesey and Jerri Moore led the way with a 54.

Finishing two shots back in second place was the team of Joan Worley, Carol Young, Betty Street and Pat Burkart.

Placing third with a round of 61 was the foursome of Heni Moulton, Rosemary Walker, Elaine Lawrenson and Jennie Gregory.

Gardner had a birdie at the 12th hole, and Worley birdied the 16th.

Brierwood Ninettes

Ann Polson fired a net 24 to win the Brierwood Ninettes "Hates Holes" tournament last Friday.

Before the round, golfers chose two holes to subtract from their scores. Finishing second with net 26 was Pat Narazinski. Liz Bruce was third with 29.

June Cleasby had low putts with 15. Hazel Casey was second with 16 putts, followed by Kathy Stoll and Wyarian Taylor with 17 apiece.

Alice Micali and Margaret Pingo had pars at the third hole. Judy Durham parred the seventh and Polson parred the ninth.

Calabash Veterans

Larry Bollinger shot gross 79 and Ernie Williams fired net 65 to lead the first flight in the Calabash Veterans Golf Association tournament last Friday at Brierwood.

Runners-up in the top flight were Tom Rugala with gross 80 and Leroy Rotherforth with net 68.

In the second flight, low gross winners were Pat Varney with 85 and Bob Stilwell with 90. Fred Hohorst had the low net of 67, followed by Ed Jackson with 72.

Third flight winners were Herb Holcomb with gross 84 and Jose Lucero with net 62. Finishing second were Dick Owens with gross 89 and Don Mahncke with net 68.

Bill Seip shot gross 91 and Herb Oellerich had net 67 to lead the fourth flight. Runners-up were Harry Birnie with gross 97 and Alan Kletchka with net 70.

Lockwood Shootout Two teams tied for first place in the Lockwood Shootout last Wednesday at Lockwood Golf Links. Ike Shelton and Bill Seip were plus 7 to tie the twosome of Joe Steele and Joe Barry.

Richard Thomy and Mike Smith placed second with plus 5. Top individual on a non-winning team was Pat Neverett at plus 6.

Sea Trail Men

The team of John Pointer, John Walker, Bill Pike (blind draw) and Dale Stanton had 114 points to win the Sea Trail Men's Golf Association tournament last Tuesday on the Byrd course.

Finishing second on a match of cards was the foursome of Ray Washam, John Murphy, Keith Curry and Dutch Geesey, also with 114 points.

Third place went to the team of Wayne Ruff, Bill Morris, John Lawrenson and Bob Erbach with 119 points. Placing fourth with 120 were Gene Williams, Joe Polanski, Dick Worley and Charlie Rose.

Two teams tied with 121 points. On a match of cards, Byron Peterson, Winston Stephens, Clarence Brown and Augie Douglass (blind draw) placed fifth. Finishing sixth were Don Holliday, George Gallop, Bill Pike and Herb Yost.

Closest-to-the-pin winners were Bob Delaney at the second hole, Don Lowensten at the seventh, Herb Holman at the 12th and John Murphy at the 16th.

Nifty Niners

Members of the Carolina Shores Nifty Niners competed for low gross and low net honors last Thursday at Ocean Isle Beach and Brierwood golf courses.

Top finishers at Ocean Isle were Kathleen Brennan with gross 58 and Peggy Goode with net 33.

Martha Lovaty had the second low gross of 59, edging Charlotte Martin on a match of cards. Brennan had the second low net of 35, followed by Dee Gillin with 36.

At Brierwood, Edna O'Connell led the way with gross 58 and Marge Marcyes fired the low net of Other top finishers included Helen Spinner with gross 60 and Marcyes with 61. O'Connell had the second low net of 32, and Jane Taubel shot 34 to finish third.

Spinner had a chip-in at the second hole and Taubel chipped in a the

On April 22, top finishers at Ocean Isle Beach were Charlotte Martin with gross 65 and Trudy Bunt with net 35.

Runners-up were Ellen Ericksen with gross 68 and Bunt with 70. Ericksen had the second low net of 39, and Martin was third with 41.

Leading the way at Brierwood were Jaye Arlotta with gross 59 and Marcyes with net 32.

O'Connell had the second low gross of 60, and Spinner was third with 61. In the low net division, O'Connell edged Judy Redding for second place after both women shot 34. Arlotta was fourth with 36.

Brierwood Ladies

Mary Schaack had 44 points to lead the first flight in the Brierwood Ladies Golf Association points tournament last Tuesday.

Runners-up in the top flight were Sara McCullough with 41 points, Rosa Stadick with 36 and Bobbie Maples with 35. Schaack had low putts in the first flight with 29.

In the second flight, Ruth Linder was the top finisher with 45 points. Tied for second with 43 apiece were Pat O'Connell and Peg Sawyer. Ethel Brown was third with 42. Linder and Brown tied for low putts with 29 each.

Third flight winners were Elsie Rickbeil with 48 points, Helene Baker with 45, Joan Cowie with 44 and Cathy Clemmons with 43. Cowie had low putts in the flight with 31.

Jane Fleig led the fourth flight with 46 points. Runners-up were Elizabeth Carter with 41, Shirley Groff with 40 and Betty Blough with 39. Carolyn McCrosky had low putts with 29.

Top finishers in the fifth flight included Emily Laughlin with 41 points, Marion Corbin and Louise Blizzard with 40 each and Evelyn Wuthrich with 39. Jen Ward and Corbin tied for low putts with 32

During the round, Rickbeil had a chip-in for birdie at the ninth hole, while McCullough chipped in at the first and birdied the third.

Also making birdies were Bobbie Maples at the second hole, Stadick at the fourth, Jan Loflin at the sixth, Doris Dunfee at the seventh and Nancy Bouldin at the eighth.

Carding chip-ins were Ginger Sugrue at the second hole, Cowie at the 12th, McCrosky at the 15th and Carter at the 17th.

Brierwood Men

Jim Bryant, Alice Micali, Betty Neal and Betty Maerker fired a three-under-par 33 to win the Brierwood Men's Golf Association ninehole mixed scramble last Thursday.

Four groups tied a 35. Finishing second on a match of cards was the team of Roy Havenga, Andrew Micali and Ruth Crosby. Paul Neal, Janet Twomey and Joyce Thompson placed third.

Also last Thursday, the foursome of Odie Johnson, Fred Williams, John Cowie and Matt Monaghan finished at three-over-par 291 to win the total team net event at Brier-

On April 26, the team of Dave Harper, Neal McCall, Bill Pingo and Bob Wareheim shot five-under-par 139 to win the Brierwood men's tournament.

Teams counted the gross score of a designated player on each hole and the low net score of the three other players. Three teams tied for second place at nine-over-par 153.

Two teams tied for first place in the 18-hole mixed scramble April 25. John Martocci, Morris Hall, Kathy Clemmons and Dede Havenga shot 66 to tie Gene Loflin, Ethel Brown, Molly Hoke and Carol Roy Havenga, Norm Soucie and Janet Twomey placed second with a 68. Finishing third with 69 was the foursome of Bill Shoemaker, Bob Hoke, Dot Crean and Lois Martocci.

Carolina Shores Men

Gary Mott, Gordon Goodwin, Bruce Kibblehouse and Jack Mc-Aleer combined for a 120 to win the Carolina Shores Men's Golf Association event April 26 at Oak Island.

Finishing one stroke back in the two best nets of foursome tournament was the team of Bob Russo, Bern Distler, Rod Manifold and Joe Placing third with 123 was the foursome of Hank Clark, Fritz Mc-Cabe, Ted Paliwoda and Tony Santino. Ed Garvey, Pat O'Neill, Jerry Rubin and Ed Fleri finished fourth at 126.

Sea Trail Couples

Ron Schadle, Dick Worley, Nancy Williams and Elaine Lawrenson shot 67 to win the Sea Trail Couples Scramble April 25 on the Maples course.

Finishing second in the captain's choice event, also with 67, was the team of Bob Manfred, John Gregory, Pat Reid and Carol Peters.

Third place went to the foursome of Gene Williams, Frank Seaboldt, Janet Coniglio and Carol Patridge

Five teams tied at net 69, and fourth and fifth places were determined on a match of cards. Dick Zinser, Dave Llewellyn, Pam Hayes and Marie Blanda took fourth, and John Pointer, Bob Moore, Pat Gardner and Adele Stephens placed

Ruth's Renegades

Members of Ruth's Renegades group competed last Thursday at The Gauntlet and Brierwood.

Top finishers at The Gauntlet were Wanda Ogden with net 69, Mary Clute with 81 and Irene Terzo with 84. Ogden birdied the fifth and 16th holes.

Ogden also won the crossover event with a score of 21. Runners-up were Barbara Fleri with 26 and Doris Dudley with 29.

At Brierwood, Alice Struck led the field with net 67. Elizabeth carter was second, also with 67, and Edith Wilckens was third with 70.

Marion Corbin chipped in at the eighth hole, and Struck birdied the

Carolina Shores Ladies

Betty Kibblehouse fired a gross 89 to lead the first flight in the Carolina Shores Ladies Golf Association tournament last Thursday at Lockwood Golf Links.

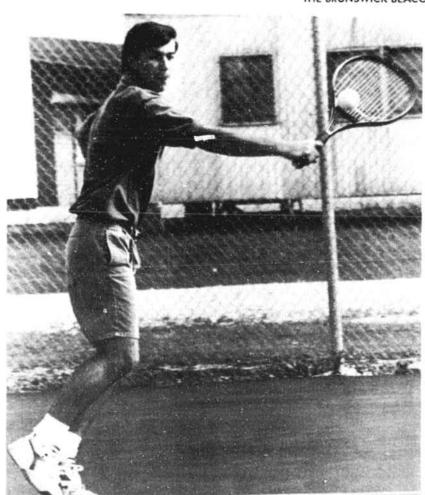

On a match of cards, Ginnie Derrickson finished with the low net of 70. Pat Soule finished second, also with 70.

Second flight winners were Joan O'Neill with gross 103 and Ruby Vanderburg with net 72. O'Neill edged Sue Greiner on a match of cards, and Vanderburg was a winner over Kathy Deming.

Top finishers in the third flight included Blanche Johnson with gross 108. On a match of cards, Helen Marsh edged Ruth Rice for low net honors after both women shot 75.

In the fourth flight, Jenny Briggs had the low gross of 122 and Sue Baer fired the low net of 85.

Ginny Dorshimer made a chip-in for birdie at the 17th hole. Also making chip-ins were Derrickson at the eighth and Ruth Radcliffe at the ninth. Radcliffe and Deming tied for low putts with 30 each.

STAFF PHOTO BY DOUG RUTTER

WEST BRUNSWICK'S MICHAEL SELLARS hits a backhand during a recent home tennis match. The Trojans were 9-1 in the Waccamaw Conference and 10-2 overall following Monday's doubleheader sweep of East Bladen.

GRAINGER QUALIFIES

South Advances To States South Brunswick qualified for the the 15-team regional, and North

North Carolina 1-A/2-A high school golf championships for the second straight year Monday with a secondplace finish at the eastern regionals in Richlands.

Also qualifying for the individual state title for the second straight year was West Brunswick's Jeremy Grainger. The state championships will be May 14 and 15 at Finley Golf Course in Chapel Hill.

South Brunswick shot a team total of 322 Monday at the Rock Creek Country Club to finish second to Farmville Central's 309. East Duplin shot 323 to place third and also advance to the state event.

West Brunswick placed fifth in Brunswick finished 14th. Waccamaw Conference member Whiteville finished eighth, and East Bladen was 15th.

South Brunswick won the eastern regional last year and finished fifth in the state championships.

The Cougars tuned up for the regionals with a dual match victory over 4-A New Hanover last Wednesday at Landfall's Nicklaus course. South shot 320 to win by 12 strokes.

South's Brandon Vannoy was medalist with a two-over-par 74. Jeff Howard and Pat Jones both shot 78 for the Cougars, and Daniel Kopp and Andy Broadwell each only undefeated team in the Brunswick County Men's Church Softball League Monday with a 19-6 win over Old Shallotte Baptist.

Emanual Outreach Unbeaten

for the South Division lead is Ocean View, which improved its record to 5-1 last Friday with a 15-11 victory over Old Shallotte. Friendship Baptist remained in third place in the South Division with a pair of wins in the past week. Friendship defeated Zion Baptist 19-4 Monday and pounded Soldier Bay 19-2 last Friday.

In the North Division, Mount Olive and Jennies Branch are tied for first place at 5-1 and Supply Baptist is close behind at 4-2.

Mount Olive suffered its first loss of the season last Tuesday, falling 14-13 to Supply. Jennies Branch won both of its games last week, beating Camp Methodist 17-2 and turning back Letties Grove 11-5.

Soldier Bay beat New Britton 12-9 Monday night. In other games last

New Tennis Ladder Is Forming Locally

Do you enjoy playing tennis but have a hard time finding competi-

Jerry Small, former tennis coach at West Brunswick High School, is trying to establish a tennis ladder in the Shallotte area.

Participants would be ranked according to experience and ability and they would arrange their own matches with players of similar abil-

For more information, contact Small at 754-6712.

IOCKWOOD

GOLF LINKS

MAY SPECIAL

Play All Day!

$35 includes cart & green fee

CALL FOR TEE TIMES

LODGE No. 727

Masons are invited to attend. By order of the Master.

two matches remaining this week. In the first match Monday, Lamarr Hardy, Caleb Steedley, Kelly Wooten, Michael Simmons, and Chris Carter won in singles play. Carter beat his opponent 6-0, 6-0, and lost just one point in the match on a double fault. West Brunswick got singles wins

W. Tennis Sweeps E. Bladen

West Brunswick's tennis team

continued its march toward a possible second straight Waccamaw 2-A Conference championship Monday, winning a doubleheader over East

West Brunswick and East Bladen

played two matches and the Trojans were 5-0 winners in both. West has a 9-1 record in the conference with

To make up an earlier rain out, from Scott Lewis and Hardy in the second match. Winning their doubles matches were Sellars and Simmons, Wooten and Carter, and John Trul and Al Villa. West Brunswick beat South Brunswick 9-0 last Tuesday to knock the Cougars out of a three-way tie for first place in the Waccamaw Conference. South, West and Whiteville were tied at 6-1 going into the match.

West Brunswick was scheduled to wrap up conference play this week with a Tuesday match against visiting Fairmont. The Trojans will resume a match against South Robeson Wednesday at Southeastern Community College.

If West wins its final two matches it will most likely end up tied with Whiteville for the conference lead at 11-1. The league championship would be decided by a coin toss, with the winner advancing to the state playoffs.

South Brunswick Results Singles: Hardy (WB) def. Yount, 6-2, 7-6 (7-3); Steedley (WB) def. Poulk, 6-0, 6-0; Simmons (WB) def. Williams, 6-4, 6-1; Sellars (WB) def. Folding, 6-2, 6-1; Wooten (WB) def. McLaughlin, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2;

Carter (WB) def. Mullis, 6-3, 6-1. Doubles: Simmons-Sellars (WB) def. Williams-Folding, 8-6; Carter-Wooten (WB) def. Yount-McLaughlin, 8-1; Stanley-Lewis (WB) def. Poulk-Mullis, 8-2.

Oldest Course in the South Brunswick Islands

SPRING PRICE

"BUSTERS"

Morning-Cart Included

Call 754-4660

for starting times

$38 GOOD ALL DAY green fees

In Church Softball League Emanual Outreach remained the week, Calvary Baptist beat Shallotte First Baptist 14-13, Letties Grove

thumped Dixon Chapel 17-0, Camp Methodist beat Calvary 12-4 and New Britton beat Seaside Methodist Chasing Emanual Outreach (7-0) Men's Church Softball

> SOUTH DIVISION Team Wins Losses Emanual Outreach Ocean View Friendship Baptist 2 Soldier Bay New Britton Seaside Methodist Zion Baptist Old Shallotte

tandings Through May 3

NORTH DIVISION Team Wins Losses Mount Olive Jennies Branch Supply Baptist 2 Calvary Baptist 3 Letties Grove 3 Camp Methodist Shallotte First Dixon Chapel

SHALLOTTE A.F. & A.M.

A Stated Communication of Shallotte Lodge No. 727 will be held Tuesday, May 11, 1993, at 7:30 p.m. at 5072 Main Street, Shallotte. All qualified Master

Twilight Special $18 (green fees & cart)

MORE GOLF FOR LESS GREEN Presented By: Carolina Shores And River Oaks

Both Ranked in Myrtle Beach's Top Five 18-Hole Golf Specials To Suit Your Time and Pocket

18 Holes Between12 Noon & 4:00 PM.. 326 18 Holes After.....4:00 P.M......21

CALL FOR RESERVATIONS

 Tee times no more than 2 days in advance.

·All rates include electric cart

All Offers Good Only With Coupon

BMSNC

Expires 5/31/93