Celebration Sunday Will Mark Camp Re-Opening

A grand opening ceremony Sunday, June 6, will mark the return to use of Camp Pretty Pond at Boiling Spring Lakes as a residential camping facility for Girl Scouts in 25 eastern North Carolina counties.

A ribbon cutting is set for 2 p.m., while the camp will be open for tours and a reception from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. All area Girl Scouts have been invited to attend.

The Girl Scout Council of Coastal Carolina, Inc., has just completed the first phase of a $1.6 million re-development project to create a modern residential camping facility that will serve more than 13,000 Girl Scouts. The camp is being renovated to serve 100 girls plus staff throughout the summer, with additional facilities to serve the year-round program and training needs of area scout troops and leaders. Camp Pretty Pond, which hadn't been used as a residential camp since 1980, will now serve as the council's primary residential camping site.

When completed, the camp will become a sports-oriented facility that utilizes a beautiful 100-acre wooded landscape and 40-acre pond. Activities provided will include archery, swimming, soccer, softball, tennis, horseback riding, basketball, volleyball, canoeing and camping. The camp will be completely handicapped accessible, including a paved path that spans the length of the camp.

The camp is located off N.C. 87 south on Pretty Pond Road (S.R. 1539) between Boiling Spring Lakes and Funston.
