CLUB BRIEFS

'Pathetic Medic' To Be Rotary Speaker

The Rotary Club of the South Brunswick Islands will welcome author and humorist John W. Lewis as program speaker for its June 18 meeting.

Lewis is a critical care paramedic employed at a trauma center in Charleston, W.Va. He went into the emergency medical services field after receiving his second college degree in 1975.

He will speak about his 18 years in emergency medicine as well as his book, "The Pathetic Medic." His book is a collection of humorous quotes and anecdotes from several thousand ambulance calls.

Lewis lives in Bancroft, W.Va. and spends two weeks every summer vacationing on Holden Beach.

Beachcombers To Meet

The Beachcombers Extension Homemakers Club will meet Wednesday, June 9, at 10 a.m., at Bonaparte Retreat, Calabash.

Mary Russ, home economics ex-tenation agent, will present a program on "Recycled Products—A Good Idea."

After the business meeting, members will make tray favors for residents of Autumn Care in Shallotte.

New members are always welcome. For information contact Jean Mearns, president, at 579-2146.

NARFE Meeting Set

The Brunswick County Chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) will hold its monthly meeting at the Sandfiddler Restaurant, Southport, on Tuesday, June 8, at noon.

Guest speaker will be Diana David of the Brunswick County Health Department, who will discuss nutrition.

All members and prospective members are encouraged to attend. NARFE meetings are open to the public, and membership is available to all federal retirees and federal employees with at least five years of service.
