

Shallotte Man Gets 45-Day Jail Term For Drug Paraphernalia

A Shallotte man was sentenced to 45 days in jail after pleading guilty in Brunswick County District Court last week to a charge of misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia.

Lorence Ottis Hill of Hale Swamp Road had been charged with possession with intent to sell and deliver cocaine and a second count of selling or delivering the drug.

Hill pleaded guilty to the misdemeanor charge as part of a plea bargain under which the state agreed to dismiss reduce the first count and drop the second.

Judge Jerry Jolly also sentenced Hill to one year in prison, suspended on the condition that he pay the costs of court and $30 restitution, perform 24 hours of community service and consent to warrantless searches of his person, home and automobiles. He was put on supervised probation for two years.
