

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Wing Dedication Is Sunday

Calabash Presbyterian Church will dedicate its new education and activity wing Sunday, July 18, as part of the 9:30 a.m. worship service.

The Rev. Dr. Robert Miller, executive presbyter, Coastal Carolina Presbytery, will give the dedication message.

Organized in February 1990 under the leadership of the Rev. Jerry McCann, that November the church called its first pastor, the Rev. Dr. Francis Womack. It dedicated its first building a year later.

The addition provides need classroom and activity space for the growing church, a news release indicated. The unit includes a large meeting room, choir room, nursery-kindergarten room and two additional classrooms.

Calabash Presbyterian is a member of Coastal Carolina Presbytery, Presbyterian Church (USA). It is located on Georgetown Road near Calabash.

Griffin At Chapel

The Rev. Dr. J.L. Griffin will be the guest speaker at The Holden Beach Chapel Sunday, July 18.

The pastor of the week is a Lutheran minister from Concord.

Worship service begins at 11 a.m. at the chapel, with a nursery provided. Sunday school is at 10 a.m.

Speaker To Appear At New Life, Aglow

New Life Assembly will hold two special services Sunday, July 18, at 10 a.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. Guest speaker will be Carol Richardson of Bath, who will also be guest speaker for Saturday's meeting of the Southport Women's Aglow.

Richardson is on the Board of Laity for the Greenville District United Methodist Churches. She was certified as a lay speaker in the United Methodist Church in 1980 and has since conducted many preaching services, revivals and seminars, as well as preaching in churches other than the Methodist denomination.

She has appeared on television to give her testimony of having come out of 12 years of "New Age" beliefs, "such as spiritism, reincarnation, and so on," according to a news release.

"It is only through the keeping power of the Holy Spirit and a thorough knowledge of God's word that a Christian can stand against the seductive powers of the spirits behind false religions," Richardson is quoted as saying.

Pastor Bobby Norton invites the public to attend. New Life Assembly is located on Stone Chimney Road near Varnantown.

The Southport Women's Aglow Fellowship meeting is set for Saturday, July 17, at 10 a.m. at the Senior Citizens' Building, Atlantic Avenue. Aglow members may bring their husbands to this meeting. Refreshments will be held following the service.

For more information about the Aglow meeting, call Bonnie Leonard at 754-6247 or LaWanda Radford at 845-2968.

Church Breaks Ground

The pastor, the Rev. Ronnie McCray Jr., and congregation of New Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church broke ground Saturday, July 10, for a permanent worship facility.

The 11 a.m. service was held at the building site on N.C. 211 south of Supply.

Organized in April 1992, the church began meeting first in the homes of members and since last July has been meeting at Bolivia Elementary School.

Trustees of the church are Shirley Bernard, Howard Robinson and Lee Bullock.

Johnston To Speak

Ralph J. Johnston, superintendent of the Brunswick County Schools, will be the guest minister Sunday, July 18, for the 10:15 a.m. worship service at Oak Island Presbyterian Church.

Sunday school begins at 9:15 a.m. The church is located at 1503 Oak Island Drive, Long Beach.

Adds Early Service

Brunswick Islands Baptist Church is offering an early worship service at 8:30 a.m. Sunday through the month of July in addition to its regular 11 a.m. worship service and 10 a.m. Sunday school.

July 18 has been designated high attendance Sunday, as members work to set an attendance record for Sunday school and worship services. Also, the church was to hold a family night dinner and service Wednesday, July 14, at 6 p.m.

The congregation is continuing to meet at its Holden Beach Road location next to True-Value Hardware Store while awaiting a certificate of occupancy for its new church on Mt. Pisgah Road.

Johnston To Speak

Ralph J. Johnston, superintendent of the Brunswick County Schools, will be the guest minister Sunday, July 18, for the 10:15 a.m. worship service at Oak Island Presbyterian Church.

Sunday school begins at 9:15 a.m. The church is located at 1503 Oak Island Drive, Long Beach.

Choir Anniversary

The gospel choir of Holy Bethel FBH Church will celebrate its ninth anniversary on Sunday, July 18, at 3 p.m.

Evangelist Mary White and the Gospelettes of Fayetteville will be in concert. Everyone is invited.
