

MRS. JAMES AUSTIN HAYS
...Ronie McShelle Hart

Hart, Hays Exchange Vows In St. Philip's Episcopal

Ronie McShelle Hart of Southport and James Austin Hays of Asheville were married June 19 in a 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony in St. Philip's Episcopal Church in Southport.

The Rev. Frank Ross and the Rev. Maxine Maddox were the celebrants. Anna Powell served as acolyte and Geno Hart, brother of the bride, was lay reader.

Music was provided by Daniel Nichols of Durham, vocalist; Deborah Skillman, organist; and Steve Skillman, horn player.

The bride is the daughter of Gene and Marie Hart of Southport. She graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1992 with a degree in middle grades education.

The groom is the son of Pat and Patty Hays of Albemarle. A 1992 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, he has a degree in radio, television and motion pictures.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white brocade gown with a scalloped Sabrina neckline, scalloped V-back, princess-style waistline and short Juliet sleeves. The chapel-length train was accented with bows. Her fingertip-length veil and blusher with pearl clusters were attached to a pearl-accented Juliet cap, designed and fashioned by her mother.

She carried a cascade of white roses, gardenias, stephanotis and orchids with miniature ivy.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Millie Hart Strickland of Southport, honor attendant, and Tina Marie Hart, maid of honor. They wore identical tea-length gowns of emerald green satin with a scalloped neckline and scalloped V-back.

Elizabeth Strickland, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Blake Elkins, a cousin of the groom, was ringbearer.

The groom's father was his best man, and Larry Hays of Chapel Hill was his groomsman. Ushers were Chip Taylor of Albemarle and John Bramlett of Columbia, S.C., friends of the groom.

Col. William Boyd and Miss Brooke Boyd greeted guests at the reception, which was held in the Southport Community Building following the wedding.

The newlyweds are residing in Asheville after a wedding trip to Walt Disney World in Orlando, Fla.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM EARL HOLDEN
...Carolyn Gaffney

Gaffney, Holden Are Wed

Carolyn Gaffney and William Earl Holden, both of Ocean Isle Beach, were married Saturday, Aug. 7, at Seaside United Methodist Church, Sunset Beach.

The Rev. Jerry Lowery performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her son, Craig Gaffney of Charlotte.

Cindy Hoback of Charlotte served as her mother's matron of honor. Robert Kalling of Shallotte Point was the groom's best man.

Flower girls were granddaughters of the bride, Kaitlin Purvis and Kelsey Purvis of Franklin, Tenn.

Nick Nolan of Ocean Isle Beach served as usher.

Music was provided by vocalist Nick Grissett of Sunset Harbor and organist Marjorie Crissman, church organist.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the Gathering Room of the church.

The newlyweds plan to live at the bride's home in Ocean Isle Beach.

Prior to the ceremony the two were honored with a cake and ice cream party given Aug. 1 at the Dune Doodlers' pavilion at Ocean Isle Beach, given by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. James King, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McClure and Elga Goodman, all of Ocean Isle Beach, with 40 guests attending. The bride- and groom-elect received a gift of bed linens.
