Golf Tourney Raises $4500

Golfers helped raise approximately $4,500 to help pay the medical bills of a local infant at the Baby Brett Golf Tournament July 25 at The Gauntlet at St. James Plantation.

Proceeds from the captain's choice event will be used to pay medical bills of Brett Flaccavento, who was born March 7 with a rare heart condition called transposition of the great artery.

Brett, the son of Bob and Jill Flaccavento of Supply, visited Duke University Medical Center in Durham last week and is doing well, according to his father.

"We just want to thank everybody who participated and let them know we appreciate their prayers and support," Bob said. The Shallotte Junior Woman's Club sponsored the golf tournament, which attracted 26 teams.

Winning the men's division with a score of 61 was the team of Anthony Carr, Larry Harrelson, Michael Cox and Jeff Mintz.

Betty Kibblehouse, Gloria Lucas, Dot Russo and Irene Crane won the women's division with a score of 73.

Bill Marsh, Gere Dale, Lois Giamalva and Ginny Dorshimer took first place in the mixed division with a round of 59.

Closest-to-the-pin winners were Marilyn Searby among the women (3 feet, 2 inches) and Bill Bellamy among the men (6 feet, 5 inches).
