BLAIR MILLIGAN hits a forehand during West Brunswick's season-opening tennis match last week against Hoggard.

West Netters Stop Bulldogs

The threat of Hurricane Emily kept the West Brunswick girls' tennis team from opening defense of its Waccamaw Conference championship Monday, when a scheduled match against South Columbus was canceled.

The Lady Trojans opened the season as scheduled last week by splitting a pair of non-conference matches.

West Brunswick defeated the Lady Bulldogs of Wallace-Rose Hill 9-0 last Thursday at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, after losing 9-0 to visiting Hoggard in last Wednesday's season opener.

West Brunswick (1-1) was scheduled to travel to St. Pauls Wednesday for a non-conference match with the Lady Bulldogs. The Lady Trojans visit Whiteville next Wednesday, Sept. 8, for a key Waccamaw Conference match.
