Greens Add Visual Interest

Varying shades of green shrubbery, cypress and palm trees add interest to the yard of Tony and Loretta Basile, 48 Carolina Shores Parkway, chosen for the September Yard of the Month Award presented by the Carolian Shores Garden Club. The greenery accents the neatness of their Tudor-style home.

New Arbor Day Members Receive Oaks

Ten free live oak trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation this month.

The free trees are part of the non-profit foundation's Trees for American campaign.

Live oaks, which grow well at the coast, were selected for the campaign "because of the shade and special beauty they will give your home," said John Rosenow, the foundation's executive director. "Live oaks grow rapidly when young and may live to be centuries old."

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The 6- to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow or will be replaced free.

Members also receive a subscription to the foundation's news magazine, Arbor Day, which includes regular features about tree planting and care.

To become a member, send $10 to Ten Live Oaks, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City NE 68410, by Sept. 30.

Dr. L'Tanya Webb Sloan, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. John H. Sloan, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Pierce, graduated, receiving the degree of Doctor of Education on July 24, 1993 from Clark Atlanta University in Atlanta, Georgia.

Formerly an educator in Brunswick County Schools, Dr. Sloan was featured in the Wilmington Morning Star News, January 24, 1984, in an article entitled, "Educator L.Tanya Sloan Seizes Each Minute Firmly"...and "seizes it" she does!

She graduated from North Brunswick High in 1973. Upon completion of her B.A. in English from University of North Carolina at Wilmington, she taught Senior English at North Brunswick for two years before being promoted to central office administration. She served Brunswick County Schools as Migrant Education Director, Staff Development Director, and Middle Schools Supervisor for 7 years while completing requirements at UNCW for masters degrees in Educational Administration, and Atlanta Public Schools offered her a position as an elementary school principal in 1986.

While in Atlanta, Dr. Sloan served as an elementary school principal and as an educational consultant and guest speaker on critical issues facing the educational community. She trained teachers and administrators in over 52 schools in Atlanta.

During her tenure as elementary school principal, she completed requirements for the degree of Specialist in Education, a 6th year degree and graduated on May 20, 1991 from Clark Atlanta University.

Presently, Dr. Sloan is Regional Sales Manager with an educational software company based in Tel Aviv, Israel. She is responsible for managing sales in N.C., S.C., Va., Md., Fl. and Washington, D.C.

She spends her spare time analyzing data for school districts which prove that students are being adequately "exposed" to what they are tested. She trains teachers and administrators to "raise the bar" for teaching students by teaching them at or above their instructional level. The application of her instructional model has caused many schools to achieve new levels of success!

Dr. Sloan credits her success in the field of education to the strong teaching and guidance of her parents, John and Eliza Sloan, and to her teachers in Wilmington and Leland who helped her believe that she could achieve anything she desired. She has two children, Rubin Terry Sloan, Jr., 16 and Tia Sloan, 13. She lives in Marietta, Georgia.
