

MRS. BRENT MONTRAVILLE AHALT
...Karen Nicole Kopp

Kopp-Ahalt Wedding Held At Jennies Branch Church

Karen Nicole Kopp of Bolivia became the bride of Brent Montraville Ahalt in an Aug. 7 ceremony at Jennies Branch Church, Ocean Isle Beach, officiated by the Rev. Jan Smook.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kopp of Bolivia. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Ahalt of Mitchellville, Md.

A program of wedding music was presented by soloist Kevin Ahalt and pianist Perry Culpepper. Wedding director was Brenda Clemmons.

The bride wore a gown of formal white satin with sweetheart neckline and short pleated sleeves. The fitted bodice was embellished with hand beading and applied on Schiffler lace. The bouffant skirt, which flowed into a chapel-length train, featured inserts of sheer illusion and re-embroidered lace motifs.

Her fingertip illusion veil featured a white satin bow with handbeaded appliques. She carried a cascade of white roses, alstroemeria lilies, baby's breath and ivy.

Charlotte P. Kopp, cousin of the bride of Boiling Spring Lakes, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Elizabeth R. Sneed of Durham, cousin of the bride; Katherine D. Lyles of Shallotte, cousin of the bride; Kimberly J. Anderson, sister of the groom, of Bowie, Md.

They wore tea-length floral print dresses in shades of pink and blue and carried bouquets of pink roses.

Kevin M. Ahalt of Mitchellville, Md., served as his brother's best man. Ushers included John Richard Kopp Jr. of Bolivia, the bride's brother; Eric Hutt of Asheville and Jeffrey Brown of Shelby.

A reception at the church was hosted by Emily Varnum and Lois Owens with assistants Nellie Hewett, Mary Ann Hewett, Mable Mooney and Gertrude Williams.

A rehearsal dinner at Sea Trail Plantation was hosted by the groom's parents.

After a wedding trip to Charleston and Savannah, the couple returned to Wingate to live.

The bride is a 1990 graduate of South Brunswick High School. She is a senior at Wingate College studying early childhood education.

The bridegroom is a 1990 graduate of Bowie High School in Maryland. He is also a senior at Wingate, studying business management.

Handback-Cox Vows Said In Clinton, S.C.

Martha Murray Handback of Clinton, S.C., and William Roscoe Cox of Ocean Isle Beach were united in marriage on Sept. 25 in a noon ceremony at Broad Street United Methodist Church, Clinton, S.C.

The Rev. Prescott E. Nead III officiated at the Anglican ceremony with the Rev. Nancy Allison serving as lector.

Wedding music was provided by Mark Avery Kelly, organist; Andrew J. Latimer, trumpeter; and James Michael Lee, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Andrew Handback. She is a graduate of the College of Charleston with a bachelor of arts degree in political science.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James William Cox Sr. of Ocean Isle Beach. He is a graduate of The Citadel with a bachelor of science degree in business administration. He is vice president of J.W. Cox Inc. of Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The wedding procession was led by crucifer Norma Peyton Hartley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Peyton Hartley; torch bearers Lucien Ellis McKee Jr. and Charles Hartzell McKee, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien McKee Sr. and flag bearers Blakley Adams Tribble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Edger Tribble, Jr.; and Abigail Louise Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen McCain Lamb, all of Clinton, S.C.

Presented to be married by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk shantung which featured short double-puffed beret sleeves and a fitted fingertip-length bodice with overlay of pearl-detailed floral lace. The collarband at the back led into an open neckline which framed a family lavalier, and the hemline of the gathered skirt flowed into a cathedral train. Complemented by a silk illusion halo, the chapel-length veil fell from a bandeau of pearl-enhanced flowers.

Maid of honor was sister of the bride, Jane Andrew Handback. Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Nancy Cotigny Rutledge of Simpsonville, S.C.

Bridesmaids were Catherine Ansley James of Athens, Ga.; Susan Wilder Gamble of Manning, S.C.; Laura Turner Addison of Clinton, S.C., cousin of the bride; and Emily Marsha Cox of Woodruff, S.C., niece of the groom.

The attendants wore gowns of chintz floral print with white background. They carried arm bouquets which duplicated the flowers in the print of their gowns.

Honorary bridesmaids were Lorie Daniel of Travelers Rest, S.C.; Julia Knox Wilson of Clover, S.C.; Jennifer Susan Holsonback of Charleston, S.C.; Nancy Lynn Gaddy of Myrtle Beach, S.C.; Kathleen Gail McBride of Newnan, Ga.; Katherine Ewing Chaffins of Martinsville, Va.; and Sharon Gean Jordan of Conway, S.C.

The groom chose his brother, James William Cox Jr. of Little River, S.C., as best man.
