

VIC Says Christmas Applications To Be Accepted Oct. 11-Nov. 19

The Brunswick County Volunteer and Information Center will begin accepting applications Oct. 11 for its annual Christmas Basket/Tree-of-Hope Program.

The holiday program is one of the most visible services provided by the center, said Bill Turner, VIC board chairman. "We expect this year to be an occasion even bigger than last year. Inquiries have already started coming in."

"The need can be overwhelming if you allow yourself to dwell on it," Turner said. "But we're confident that when we look back on it, the response of people all across the county will be as terrific this year as it has in years past."

Applications will be accepted through Nov. 19.

For families with children under 18 and senior citizens over 62, special decorator tags will be made and distributed to banks, churches, clubs and other organizations who have erected Christmas trees and are participating in the Tree-of-Hope Program.

Information on the tags will include first name, age and sex of the recipient and a "special wish" for a gift. Customers, clients, church and organization members will select tags from the tree and attach those tags to gifts.

Pete Barnette, VIC executive director said gift recipients must meet federal income qualifications and must have Social Security numbers for all family members except children under one year old.

"An application will not be completed unless the applicant comes prepared with Social Security cards or number for every person in the household over one year. Should that occur, the applicant will be required to post-completion of the application until such time that he or she does have all cards or numbers," Barnette said.

Barnette said the VIC staff and board members are ready to provide details to local organizations wishing to sponsor a Tree-of-Hope, "adopt" a family for Christmas or become program volunteers.

VIC officers are Turner, chairman; Michael Rhodes, vice chairman; Susan Gible, treasurer; and Bill Willetts Jr., secretary. Directors are Vi Andrews, Anne-Marie Bellamy, "Bobby" Brown, Brenda Grissett, Paul Hernandez, Mark Lewis, Ola Lewis, Libby Madison, Normag Melton, the Rev. P.D. Midgett III, Millie Murrow, Vernon Parker, Brenda Register and Percy Woodard.

The organization's offices are open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and are at the intersection of U.S. and N.C. 211 beside Supply Baptist Church. For more information, call 754-4766.

Logo Contest Deadline Extended

The deadline to enter the North Carolina Oyster Festival logo contest has been extended until Tuesday, Oct. 12.

Designer of the logo chosen to represent next year's festival will win $100.

Professional and amateur entries are welcome. They must be 8 inches by 10 inches and in color. The art must include the following words: 14th Annual North Carolina Oyster Festival, October 14 & 15, 1994, South Brunswick Islands, NC. Also, artists must include their name, address and phone number on a separate sheet of paper accompanying their entry.

"It is the intention of the Oyster Festival Committee and the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce not to alter the winning logo in any way," a chamber news release states. "The design will be used in promoting the 1994 N.C. Oyster Festival."

All submitted entries will be displayed at this year's festival coming up Oct. 15-16 at the intersection of N.C. 904 and 179. The Oyster Festival hosts around 20,000 people for the two-day event. It offers a variety of arts and crafts exhibits, a mixture of food vendors—including seafood—and entertainment.

Festival-goers will have an opportunity to judge the entries and choose the logo they feel best represents the festival.

Entries should be sent or delivered to the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 1380, 4948 Main St., Shallotte NC 28459.

For more information, call the chamber office at (919)754-6644 or toll-free at 1-800-426-6644.

RICH #5179
(January, 1992) Rich loves to tell jokes. When his friends hear his jokes, even the corny ones, they laugh and say, "Oh, that's Rich!" Sometimes it's the hardest of all. Imagine his delight when he asked Penny, "Are those my dimes?" and she answered, "No they're Penny's!" Because Rich is such a happy person, he has lots of friends. He has no coins, for he judges wealth differently. He's not joking when he says, "As long as I have Penny, I'm rich!"
(INTRODUCED 2/93)

PENNY #5180
(INTRODUCED 8/93)
(January, 1992) You may think these coins are yours but they're not, they are Penny's! She also has several peanuts on her base, because some people consider pennies to be just peanuts. She was very surprised when she saw this windfall, and her friends said, "You're a lucky Penny!" Penny is a sweet person who likes to share her luck with others, so she leaves her coins on sidewalks and in the grass for children to find. She loves to listen to Rich's jokes and see the enjoyment he gets from making others laugh. But Rich never teases when asked about his one true love "Penny? Oh, Penny's from heaven!"

"Rich" the third Figurine and "Penny" the Fourth introduction, in a NEW SPECIAL SERIES, will be available for purchase—only—during this special event.

Come meet "Rich" and "Penny", exchange gnome stories and be one of the lucky few to add these two delightful wood spirits to your collection.
(Hint: Rich will retire to the Gnome Forest as of Mar. 31, 1994 and Penny may become "Auntie Penny.")

A retired Tom Clark art work will be given to a customer attending this event!
