

Southport 'Street Person' Sent To Prison After Guilty Plea

A man listed on court dockets as a "street person" in Southport was sent to prison for two years after pleading guilty in Brunswick County District Court last week to a charge of second degree trespassing.

After Robert Lee Edge, 32, pleaded guilty to the charge Wednesday (Sept. 29), Judge Jerry Jolly activated a two-year sentence that had been suspended last May after Edge pleaded guilty to charges of assaulting and resisting a police officer and first-degree trespassing.

Edge was given an additional 30-day sentence on last week's conviction, to run at the same time as the two-year sentence.

Judge David Wall presided over district court last Monday and Tuesday. Judge Jolly heard cases Wednesday. Assistant District Attorney Rick Green offered the state's evidence Monday and Tuesday, while ADA Lillian Salcines prosecuted Wednesday's cases. Marie Jordan served as courtroom clerk.
