Optimists Install Officers, Induct New Members At Annual Banquet

The South Brunswick Islands Optimist Club held its annual banquet Oct. 5 at Boys and Girls Home of Lake Waccamaw, celebrating its first year as a chartered club.

Several guests from the sponsoring Whiteville Optimist Club were present to congratulate the club for its achievements as a first-year charter. The local group met the criteria for an honor club designation. Bruce Phillips Jr. of the Whiteville club was toastmaster.

Highlighting the evening was induction of new officers for the 1993-94 fiscal year. Leaving office were Joe Gore, president; Sara Estep and Kerry Craig, vice presidents; and Tammy Gore, secretary.

Bonnie Cox will take over as president, with Les Craft and Currie Batchelor becoming vice presidents. Tammy Gore will remain as secretary, and Sara Estep will become club treasurer. Regional Lt. Bob Little installed the officers.

Joe Gore presented perfect attendance awards to Bonnie Cox, Carolyn Craft, Les Craft, Dave Deaver, Missy Elkins, Sara Estep, Joe Gore, Tammy Gore, Beryl Hall and Lisa Winfree.

Special appreciation awards were given by Gore to Les Craft of the SBI club and Eric Underwood of the Whiteville club for their guidance throughout the year.

The lifetime member award was presented to Bonnie Cox. The award is voted on by club members to recognize the member they feel most deserves recognition for guidance throughout the year.

Cox inducted six new members, including Steve Gore, Kitty Shore, Jeff Finney, Amanda Finney, Libby Schilz and Pat McQuown.
